Hampshire County Council

Hampshire

- 23% of Hampshire's population live in the 85% of the county classified as rural, while 77% of the population live in the 15% categorised as urban.
- The ethnic diversity in Hampshire is much lower than England as a whole (8.2% compared to 20.2% respectively) but it is gradually increasing across the county.
- Overall Hampshire is a prosperous area, ranked the tenth least deprived upper tier authority in England (out of 150).
- However this masks some inequalities; within Hampshire there are 3 areas that rank amongst the most deprived 20% of areas in England.

Nepali Cancer Project

- To identify and influence change in the barriers to accessing cancer and other health services by the local community based on local needs
 - To act as a forum for innovation and improvement for local health services based on need
 - To support positive communication between primary and secondary care around the Nepali culture and the cancer pathway (including prevention).
 - To signpost Care Providers to the Nepali cancer ambassadors
 - To share learning and disseminate information about other local Nepali projects
