[REDACTED]

2 February 2015

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your e-mail of 30 January 2014 asking for information about aircraft types on active service.

You requested the following information:

".....a list of all aircraft in active service (make, model and type aircraft)."

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). We have now completed a search of our paper and electronic records for the information you requested and I can confirm that information within the scope of your request is held.

Details of aircraft types currently owned and in service with the UK Armed Forces were recently published in response to a Parliamentary Question and are already available in the public domain. They are therefore exempt under Section 21(1) of the FOIA – "information available to the applicant by other means". The Parliamentary Question can be found at the following link:

<http://www.parliament.uk/business/publications/written-questions-answers-statements/written-question/Commons/2014-12-15/218827>

Under Section 16 (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note that details of aircraft in service with the UK Armed Forces can be found on the Ministry of Defence website at the following link: <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ministry-of-defence>.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <https://ico.org.uk>

Yours sincerely,

Air DRes Sec 3a1
