

We were asked:

- Q1. How many departmental identity cards or security passes have been issued to non-departmental staff in the years:
2011/12
2012/13
2013/14
- Q2. Please list the organisations to which individuals belonged when they were issued cards or passes.
- Q3. In each year how many of these cards or passes have expired?
- Q4. Which organisations have staff in possession of departmental identity cards or security passes which are still valid in June 2014?

We replied:

- A1. The Wales office has issued three security passes to non-departmental staff in 2013/14 and none in 2011/12 and 2012/13.
- A2. In 2013/14 the department issued security passes to staff in the Greater London Lieutenancy as they rent accommodation in our building in London.
- A3. None of the security passes issued in 2013/14 have expired.
- A4. The Greater London Lieutenancy is the only organisation which has staff in possession of security passes that are still valid in June 2014.
