Subject: Wording

REDACTION

I have agreement to make a change to our community engagement charter, adding in a new paragraph alongside the paras on community benefits

The new para would read:

- REDACTION.

Ken,

Thanks for sending this through and I will hold off inserting the wording until we meet. Is it 1pm? My diary is reasonably flexible today.

Ken,

Thanks. As the wording makes clear under (1), the amount for a typical well might be REDACTION. I can pass this to Ministers but it does raise the risk that they will need time to consider further and clear with Cabinet colleagues, which in turn could preclude being able to announce a precise figure when launching the consultation.

If you are able to confirm this afternoon (a.m. your time) that this (along with the previous wording) is what your members wish to put forward I will update Ministers accordingly.

Subject: Shale consultation update
Importance: High

Ken,

It is now looking highly unlikely that we will publish the consultation tomorrow – there are concerns that this is too close in practice to the local elections, regardless of whether the formal restrictions on announcements apply. Unless I hear otherwise, we would therefore expect instead to publish shortly after the elections, probably in the week commencing 26th May.

Therefore please stand down at your end and alert your members accordingly as relevant.

I will get back in touch before then to discuss the payment proposal, once Ministers have considered this, and to explore further the issue of payment being non-compulsory where access can be negotiated individually.

Obvious concern from our side on what this does for longer term timing if we delay further

Ken,

This has no impact on the longer term timing. Passage of any legislation in the coming session must be completed before the end of the session (there are no carryover options as this is the last session of Parliament). Therefore any postponements at this end of the process mean that other elements are reduced, the endpoint cannot be pushed back as legislation does not work that way. In practice given parliamentary recess dates this postponement will not have a significant impact on the date of introduction.

Ken,

As discussed I would be grateful if you could email UKOOG's voluntary payment and public notification offer. Unfortunately we are all transferring IT systems today and so it would be really useful if you could copy Duarte, REDACTION and REDACTION into this email to ensure that we receive this.

As mentioned it would be really useful to have the offer set out in writing promptly. If you would like to discuss further then please call me on REDACTION.

Many thanks,

REDACTION

Our revised wording with respect to changes to our community engagement charter effectively adding a new paragraph alongside the paras on community benefits

The new para would read:

- Provide a benefit mechanism to local communities with respect to statutory right of land access at a rate of £20,000 per unique lateral drilled subject to a minimum distance exclusion of 200 metres . The exact payment mechanism will be discussed with local communities at the time of pre-consultation which will be informed by normal public notification. Where laterals vertically coincide payment will be made only once.

Ken

Dear Ken,

I hope you are well. I wanted to get your views/confirmation on the lines below, which we are hoping to add to our Q&A. We expect to be asked how Government plans to monitor the voluntary payment scheme for access, and hoped we could use similar points to those mentioned in your community engagement charter.

Are you content with us using the text below (particularly the highlighted text)? It would also be helpful if we could use the same examples of community projects you mention on your website (also below).

How will Government ensure the industry voluntary scheme is fair/working?

- The shale gas and oil industry have agreed with the UK Community Foundations that it will distribute the access payments to recipients. A similar arrangement is being discussed between the deep geothermal industry and the Foundations.
- This experienced charity has been in operation in the UK for over 20 years, and works for communities through a UK-wide network of community foundations.
- Details of these payments will be available to communities and published on industry websites.
- Each year, operators will publish evidence detailing how the commitments within the access payment scheme are being met.
- DECC will periodically monitor this evidence to ensure that the scheme is working well.

Would you be happy for us to use the following examples of community initiatives?

UKCF has helped many communities across the country on behalf of a number of major corporations and sectors. Examples of previous community initiatives have included:

- The purchase and running of a local village shop;
- Reinstatement of a micro-hydroelectricity plant;
- Commissioning of a local apprenticeship scheme with local businesses;
- Management of a local nature reserve;
- Setting up of children's breakfast clubs.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

REDACTION

Dear REDACTION,

Many thanks for getting in touch with this update. I have just returned from holiday so apologies for a slow response. I am available over the phone tomorrow at 3pm, or we could meet in person later this week or next. Let me know which suits you best.

Kind regards,
REDACTION

Dear REDACTION

It was good to meet you the other day. I wanted to let you know that we will be starting the piece of work with REDACTION to explore a captive that we discussed – I am meeting with REDACTION next Friday to kick things off.

It would be good to update you once I have had that meeting. Are you free week beginning 16th June? Anytime from 3pm on the 17th would work for me. Failing that, Monday 16th.

Kind regards

Dear REDACTION,

That's no problem, happy to offer another date.

The only available time next week would be 11:30 on 28 May.

If this time is unsuitable I can offer availability further ahead into June.

Hope this helps.

Dear REDACTION,

I'm afraid I'm not available on the 30th but I am around most of the rest of the week. Unfortunately, due to our Department's IT upgrade I am unable to check other's diaries at the moment. Perhaps you could suggest another couple of potential times next week and as soon as I can access calendars I will confirm?
