WFP Sudan Otash IDP Camp

December 2016

Background

In August 2004, the Otash camp for the internally displaced was established in the Nyala locality. The camp hosts 75,274 protracted internally displaced persons (IDPs) and 5,938 new arrivals.

IDPs originate from the following villages: Elghoz Elgharbi, Muhajeria, Labado, Um Gonya, Hijier, Marla, Heriga, Donkey Derissa, Halouf, Yara, Shadida, Duma, Adwa, Malam, Um Dokhon and Delige. And the IDP population is predominantly from the Fur and Brigit tribes, representing 50% of the population, while the other 50% include the Zaghawa, Dinka, Tama and Misseria Jabal tribes.

Verification Analysis

In June 2011, the verification of protracted IDPs took place and in April 2014 for 2013/14 new arrivals.

The revision of the IDP caseload led to a 23% reduction from pre-verification figure of 71,439 to the post-verification figure of 56,530.

And in September 2015, the IDP profiling resulted in 8% caseload reduction.

Programmatic Response
