Chevening China Awards

Monday 15 January 2018

The Residence of the British Ambassador, Beijing

有志气 敢奋斗 做领袖

Congratulations and Welcome!

It is a great pleasure to welcome to the Chevening China Awards all the scholars and fellows, alumni, friends and guests who have joined us. We meet to celebrate the achievements of our Chevening community and to offer you all our very best wishes as you embark on the next stages of your careers.

The Chevening China Awards is one of the many highlights of the year as a Chevening Scholar or Fellow. For our graduating cohort, it is the culmination of your studies. For all of us, it is an opportunity to mark your successes. Our scholars and fellows are drawn from across China and from all walks of life; you have studied in universities across the United Kingdom. You have strengthened and enriched the academic community and today we welcome you to the wider international community of Chevening alumni.

Today, we recognise the work of distinguished individuals by the presentation of Chevening China Awards supported by Spirit of Youth. This year's recipients have made important contributions to intellectual, cultural, social and economic life, locally, nationally and internationally. These individuals continue to enrich our Chevening community and provide inspiring role models for current and future Chevening scholars and fellows, encouraging them to aspire to the highest levels in their chosen careers.

We hope that all of our Chevening Class of 2016/2017 will look back on your time in the UK with affection and will feel proud to be associated with a programme that acts as a real force for change both in China and on the international stage. The Chevening Programme sows the seeds for a Global Partnership that works for all, creating a global community of future leaders that are able to respond to the greatest challenges of our time. We hope that you will take with you from your experiences knowledge, friendships and inspiration for the future.

Congratulations on becoming an alumni of the UK Government's flagship awards programme – Chevening.

Award for Culture and Creativity

For exceptional contribution to UK-China collaboration in the Cultural and Creative Sector

Xu Shu Jun

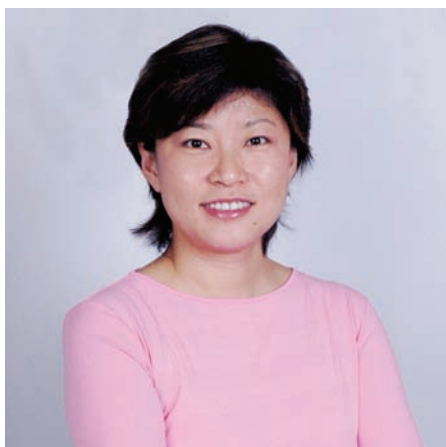

Chevening Scholar 2002-2003

MPhil Advanced Programme of Documentary Directing, National Film and Television School

Acting as a bridge to Chinese and foreign film-makers, Shu Jun (Susan) has facilitated many collaborations in UK-China film co-production. Currently serving as Vice President of the China Film Co-Production Corporation, Shu Jun has coordinated and chaired many forums, workshops and networking opportunities including the recent China-UK Creative CEO Forum as part of the High Level People-to-People Dialogue attended by Chinese Vice Premier Madame Liu Yandong.

Award for Sports

For exceptional contribution to UK-China collaboration in the Sports Sector

Yan Xinmin

Chevening Scholar 2006-2007

MA Television Journalism, City, University of London

Xinmin was the first Chinese woman aboard the Clipper Round the World Race and has been instrumental in bringing major sailing competitions from the UK to China. Also in recent years, she has raised the profile of football in China by hosting documentary film festivals in collaboration with the National Football Museum and a number of football clubs across the UK.

Award for Healthcare

For exceptional contribution to UK-China collaboration in the Healthcare Sector

Hong Ping

Chevening Fellow 2016/17

Chevening Healthcare, Health Policy and Health Reform Fellowship, University of Oxford

As a member of the senior leadership of the National Health and Family Planning Commission of the People's Republic of China, Hong Ping has overseen the sharing of international best-practice between the UK and China in a wide range of areas with a focus on sexual education. Her role includes the promotion of healthcare rights for vulnerable groups and requires her to work on multilateral cooperation projects across the developing world.

Welcome to the Chevening China Family...

Congratulations for making it here today! As a result of your own hard work and with the support of family and friends in both China and the UK, you have earned your place among a unique and inspiring international network of game-changers all with one thing in common – you are Chevening.

This year, you have experienced UK life and culture, learned alongside friends from all over the world, and created memories that will last a lifetime. You have pushed yourself to the limit academically and had once-in-a-lifetime opportunities that have aided your professional development and understanding of today's world. You have written essays and completed dissertations in a different language, and participated in seminars and discussions that focus on tackling global challenges. You have an enhanced understanding of the role of government and the UK-China bilateral relationship, having met government representatives from across Whitehall, attended visits to the Foreign Office and Buckingham Palace. In striving to improve and better yourself, you are better prepared to face the challenges of life and contribute to the betterment of others. For all that you have done and achieved so far, you should be very, very proud.

Since 1983, the Chevening Awards Programme has supported future leaders and influencers by recognising and rewarding their vision, passion and drive, allowing them to pursue postgraduate education at any UK higher education institution. You are now part of a global network of over 48,000 alumni from 160 countries around the world, including over 3,500 alumni in China.

The Chevening China Family is an outstanding network of individuals who focus on professional development, contribution to each other and society, and lifelong learning. We want you to play an active role in this network, contributing to the continued development of yourself and others by demonstrating the same resilience, passion, and vision you have demonstrated to us throughout the application process and during your time in the UK.

We want you to keep in touch throughout your careers. Across the UK Government we work hard to ensure that there are many ways for you to do so. We want you to help promote Chevening all across China, inspiring and empowering future generations of people from any walk of life. We welcome your enthusiasm in coordinating and participating in events organised for the Chevening Alumni Network across the year, and we encourage your involvement in UK Embassy campaigns, initiatives, dialogues and visits. We welcome your imagination and creativity and embrace your energy and dynamism in continuing to shape our Global Partnership, ensuring a secure and prosperous future for all.

Chevening represents so much to so many people both in China and around the world. It is privilege and an honour for us all to be part of this programme, and we look forward to sharing in your Chevening journey for years and years to come.

The benefits of Chevening

Returning from the UK to China doesn't mean that you stop benefiting from Chevening. Chevening continues to support you and remains an integral part of your life, wherever you are in the world.

Stay in touch, informed, involved...

Through following Chevening on social media platforms and keeping in touch with your Chevening Team in your nearest UK Embassy or Consulate General, you can receive regular updates and news, share your achievements and progress, and gain access to connections that can aid and inspire your continued professional development. By following Chevening on Facebook, LinkedIn and Chevening Connect, as well as UK Embassy, Consulate, and High Commission social media platforms around the world, you will always be able to access a community of like-minded individuals and make the most of the privileges of being a Chevening Alumni.

Contact the Chevening China Team by emailing chevening.beijing@fco.gov.uk.

Coordinate and participate in Chevening Alumni events

Throughout 2017, the Chevening Team hosted and coordinated over 50 events for alumni all across China. These Chevening Events aim to bring Chevening Alumni, UK Government and potential future Chevening applicants together to share experiences and offer guidance to one another, supporting lifelong learning by raising awareness of all kinds of opportunities. Annual regional conferences, Chevening Talks, community activities and sector-specific site visits and events are but a few examples of a wide range of activities that Chevening Alumni can coordinate and participate in. To learn more, get to know your local Chevening Officer at one of our five locations across China.

Enjoy Embassy campaigns and support initiatives

The FCO China Network runs a wide range of public events, campaigns and initiatives aimed towards building understanding between the UK and China. As a Chevening Alumni, you are always welcome to participate in campaigns and initiatives as friends of the UK government in China - Shakespeare Lives, Be Yourself and the ongoing Spirit of Youth campaigns aim to empower and inspire future generations of responsible and engaged leaders. Follow the UK Embassy and Consulate Generals social media platforms to learn more about how you can contribute and benefit from any of these ongoing initiatives.

Give back

Chevening collaborates with of universities, governments and private sector organisations from around the globe to support and enhance the experience of our Chevening Scholars, Fellows and Alumni. Chevening seeks to partner with organisations the world over to jointly-fund a select number of awardees under the Chevening banner. We encourage alumni to support in sourcing opportunities for the Chevening Programme to develop commercial partnerships both in China and abroad.

The Chevening China Programme

Chevening is the UK Government's international awards scheme aimed at developing global leaders. Funded by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) and partner organisations, Chevening offers two types of award – Chevening Scholarships and Chevening Fellowships – the recipients of which are personally selected by British embassies and high commissions throughout the world. Chevening offers a unique opportunity for future leaders and influencers from all over the world to develop professionally and academically, network extensively, experience UK culture, and build lasting positive relationships with the UK.

Applications for most Chevening Awards closed on 7 November 2017 and will reopen in August 2018 for opportunities to study in the UK in 2019/2020.

Wherever in the world you end up, if you have a degree from a UK university it will be recognised by employers, universities, and governments. As UK universities are associated with quality education, earning a degree from one of the UK's many highly-regarded universities will aid your career progression.

World-class universities

UK universities consistently rank highest in global university ranking as many have world-leading reputations for teaching and research.

Develop English language skills

Studying in the UK allows you to immerse yourself in the English language for a sustained period of time. You'll speak, read, and write in English on a daily basis, enabling you to master the global language of commerce, science, and technology whilst in the UK.

Multiculturalism

Britain is multi-cultural, multi-faith, and multi-lingual, and has a long and successful history of attracting and welcoming visitors, especially students, from all parts of the world. Living in the UK exposes you to a variety of cultures, opinions, and experiences that would be hard to find elsewhere.

History and heritage

Britain's history sits seamlessly alongside its present. Packed with historic monuments, stately homes, castles, and cathedrals, there are countless well-preserved sites of historical interest that you can visit whilst studying in the UK.

Arts and entertainment

The UK has internationally-acclaimed creative industries that have consistently generated global talents such as the Beatles, J.K. Rowling, Sean Connery, Vivienne Westwood, and Damien Hirst.

Sporting nation

The 2012 Olympic Games took place in London, establishing the UK as the sporting capital of the world. The UK is home to Premier League football, annually it hosts the London Marathon, an F1 Grand Prix, a tennis major at Wimbledon, a Diamond League athletics meeting, as well as high profile cycling, rugby, cricket, snooker, golf, and horse racing events.

Chevening Partners

“Of course, none of this would be possible without the support of our partners, who contribute time, resources, and support to the programme. I would like to extend my thanks on behalf of the UK Government for your continued commitment to the Chevening community.

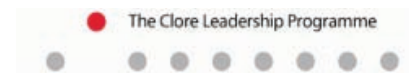

“2018 will be an exciting time for Chevening. The programme celebrates its 35th anniversary and by the end of this year, over 50,000 change-makers will have studied in the UK since it began in 1983. It is my belief that the bonds created over these years will strengthen further as we work together to promote common values and approach global challenges.”

The Rt Hon Mark Field MP
Minister of State

Spirit of Youth

The Spirit of Youth campaign, brought to you by the UK government including the British Council and Visit Britain, is a China-wide campaign aiming to inspire the next generation of leaders in China and the UK and to promote deeper collaboration and exchange. Audiences have been getting involved in the multitude of Spirit of Youth events and activities running across China throughout the campaign. Activities have focused on six key themes, which represent areas of partnership and mutual learning for the UK and China: Culture and Creative, Sport, Tourism, Health, Science and Innovation and Education.
