

ThinkBrazil

Think Ideas. Think Opportunities. Think Partnerships.

UK 2017 • MAY 10TH - 19TH

#ThinkBrazil will bring Brazil and the UK even closer together by stimulating collaboration on key issues for both countries. It is, above all, an opportunity to celebrate our bilateral relationship.

WEDNESDAY, 10TH MAY

- Celebration of 100th Anniversary of Brazilian writer Antonio Callado

- Avant-première of HBO's film on Brazilian dancer Thiago Soares - Principal of The Royal Ballet

FRIDAY, 12TH MAY

- Science and business breakfast at the London Science Museum and visit to Robots Exhibition hosted by Director, Ian Blatchford

- Finance panel: investing in the Brazilian capital and financial markets

SUNDAY, 14TH MAY

- Brazil Forum, Oxford University

TUESDAY, 16TH MAY

- Current opportunities in the Oil & Gas sector in Brazil
- Showcasing Financial Services opportunities in Brazil

THURSDAY, 18TH MAY

- Nation Branding Seminar: experience of the UK's GREAT campaign & others
- Educational Conference: promoting the internationalisation of Brazilian universities
- Anglo-Brazilian Business Dialogue: inaugural meeting
- British Brazilian Awards: celebrating business success stories

THURSDAY, 11TH MAY

- Science lecture: Zika and Microcephalia, with Prof. Celina Turchi - most influential Brazilian researcher (listed on 2017 TIME's 100)

SATURDAY, 13TH MAY

- Brazil Forum, LSE London
- 3rd UK-Brazil "Conversa" Forum – hosted by Alan Charlton, former British Ambassador to Brazil

MONDAY, 15TH – FRIDAY, 19TH MAY

- SENAC inward mission focused on Gastronomy, Tourism, Fashion, Beauty and Hospitality

WEDNESDAY, 17TH MAY

- Innovation in Health Care discussion: research, technology and intellectual property
- Market access and opportunities in the Infrastructure sector
- Doing business in LatAm: Education opportunities in Brazil and Latin America (London session)
- Brazilian High Education mission focused on international partnerships (part 1)
- Education Reception: celebrating the Brazil-UK partnership
- Book Club, featuring the novel "Pureza", by José Lins do Rego

FRIDAY, 19TH MAY

- Doing business in LatAm: Education opportunities in Brazil and Latin America (Manchester session)
- Brazilian High Education mission focused on international partnerships (part 2)
- Beyond the Hard News Seminar: expanding the perception of Brazil