I probably should, shouldn't I? I'm the Counsellor for the sector after all. A bit surprised I wasn't invited as I was last year. Do you still have your invite? Because if so could you ask if I can replace you?

No - have to do ECOFIN. Was invited to dinner and had to decline. Ivan probably happy to do on his own but I'd try to wangle an invite if you want to.

Peter. Are you going to this dinner or not? I don't seem to be. If Ivan is happy being there on his own, fine. If not, I'd better wangle myself an invite.
