

A list of all breaches of licence conditions and Ofcom’s codes and rules over the last 10 years against each of the licensees and VOD service providers owned by Sky plc subsidiaries and by 21st Century Fox subsidiaries¹

A list of all breaches of licence conditions and Ofcom’s codes and rules over the last 10 years against each of the licensees and VOD service providers owned by Sky plc subsidiaries

‘Breach’ refers to when an Ofcom investigation has found that the broadcaster has failed to comply with the Broadcasting Code, or other Ofcom codes or licence conditions. This decision will be published in full in the Broadcast and On Demand Bulletin.

‘Resolved’ refers to when a breach of the relevant rules or licence conditions did occur, but the broadcaster took immediate and appropriate steps to remedy the breach. In these cases, Ofcom may consider it appropriate not to record a breach, but to determined that the case is ‘resolved’.

Issues of Ofcom’s Broadcast and On Demand Bulletins can be found on Ofcom’s website: <https://www.ofcom.org.uk/about-ofcom/latest/bulletins/broadcast-bulletins>

N.B. Some of the service names in the table below are different from the lists above because of subsequent name changes requested by the licensee.

The information that was used to determine which licensees to include in our search for subsidiaries of Sky plc and 21st Century Fox was sourced from a range of places including Companies House, the US Securities and Exchange Commission, the annual reports of Sky plc and 21st Century Fox, and the original licence applications. Most of these sources include publicly available information but we do not routinely make licence applications public.
