Dear [REDACTED]

Site Development M23 junction 8 Redhill

Thank you for your email of 5 April 2017 to Highways England Customer Contact Centre requesting the as built and noise survey data for the area surrounding Rockshaw Road in Redhill, which incorporates junction 7 of the M25 and junction 8 of the M23.

Further to our telephone conversation on 24 May, we established that you require information for the last five years between May 2012 and May 2017.

Your request is being dealt with under the terms of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR). This is because the information requested concerns measures and activities affecting or likely to affect elements of the environment or affect factors such as noise, pollution discharges and other releases into the environment.

I refer to your request under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 for information about as built and noise survey data for the area of our network surrounding Rockshaw Road in Redhill. The information you have requested therefore falls under Regulation 12(4)(a) of the regulations.

I am writing to advise you that, following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested is not held by Highways England.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote reference number [REDACTED] in any future communications.

If you require a print copy, please phone the Information Line on 0300 123 5000; or e-mail info@highwaysengland.co.uk. If you are unhappy with the way we have handled your request you may ask for an internal review. Our review process is available at: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/highways-england/about/complaints-procedure

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Yours sincerely
