Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 21 November requesting the following information:

“What is the backlog of maintenance on electrical infrastructure on the Ministry of Defence Estate?”

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Ministry of Defence (MOD) requires further information in order to determine whether it holds any information within the scope of your request. In particular, it would be useful to know if you are seeking the information expressed as the financial cost of addressing the backlog or the time that it would take to complete the required maintenance.

Once you have clarified your request, I will be pleased to consider it again.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

DIO Secretariat
