Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your emails of 29 March 2017 and 12 April 2017 requesting the following information:

'I would be grateful if you could provide statistics regarding the pass rate on the RAF Intelligence Branch Specialist Training Course at the Defence Intelligence and Security Centre at Chicksands over the last 3 years.

I can confirm that I was referring to the Phase 2 Regular Officer training (JITG/H/3010 – Joint Air Intelligence Course (JAIC)).'

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information requested has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held. This information can be found attached at Annex A.

If you are not satisfied with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance Team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website: <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
