Dear

Thank you for your email of 10 May 2017 requesting the following information:

Under the FOIA I would like to request any information you hold relating to the following questions regarding the married quarter at:

1. Basic details (date, description of works, cost) of all works which cost over £250 that have been completed in the last 5 years or are planned in the future.

5. The date the property was constructed and by whom.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD) and under section 40(5) of the FOIA I can neither confirm nor deny that the information in scope of your request is held, as it falls entirely within the scope of the absolute exemption provided for at section 40 (Personal Data) FOIA.

Section 40(5) has been applied to the information in order to protect personal information as governed by the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA). Section 40 is an absolute exemption and there is therefore no requirement to consider the public interest in making a decision to neither confirm nor deny whether the information is held.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note that if you wish to make a request for your own personal data or data that relates to you that is held by the MOD, you will need to submit a Subject Access Request under the DPA. Further information on how to do this can be found using the following link: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/obtain-information-about-yourself-held-by-mod>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely
