Notes

- 1 In a Declaration dated 1 January 1986, the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands declared that the Procès-Verbal extended to the Netherlands Antilles and Aruba.
- 2 United Kingdom's signature was accompanied by the signature of India and the Irish Free State.
- 3 In a note dated 7 October 2010, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for the Kingdom of the Netherlands notified the Foreign and Commonwealth Office of the following:
With effect from 10 October, the Netherlands Antilles will cease to exist as part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. From that date onwards, the Kingdom will consist of four parts: the Netherlands, Aruba, Curaçao and Sint Maarten will enjoy self-government within the Kingdom, as Aruba and, up to 10 October 2010, the Netherlands Antilles do. These changes constitute a modification of the internal constitutional relations within the Kingdom of the Netherlands. The Kingdom of the Netherlands will accordingly remain the subject of international law with which agreements are concluded. The modification of the structure of the Kingdom will therefore not affect the validity of the international agreements ratified by the Kingdom for the Netherlands Antilles. These agreements, including any reservations made, will continue to apply to Curaçao and Sint Maarten. The other islands that have until now formed part of the Netherlands Antilles – Bonaire, Sint Eustatius and Saba – will become part of the Netherlands, thus constituting 'the Caribbean part of the Netherlands'. The agreements that now apply to the Netherlands Antilles will also continue to apply to these islands; however, the Government of the Netherlands will now be responsible for implementing these agreements.
