Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

I am writing to ask if the above estate should still be listed on the BV List. This is because of the enclosed letter that we received from a relative whom we had written to.

I am hoping that you can shed some light on this.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I have interpreted your request to mean that you require confirmation as to whether the estate is still claimable.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

The Division holds information relating to whether the estate is still claimable or not. This information can be found on our unclaimed estates list. The information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
