Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

We note that in your database you state that there is a decree nisi absolute dated the 3/8/1988, however she died in April of that year and it appears that her husband Wilfred Levett had died in 1977?

Can you explain this please as it obviously makes a difference to the beneficiaries

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

It appears that the date of the decree absolute provided in the in unclaimed list is incorrect. The correct date of the decree absolute is 7 July 1977. The unclaimed list will shortly be amended with the correct information and I apologise for any inconvenience.
