

New state schools which have been approved to have cadet units between November 2015 – October 2016

Arnold Hill Academy – Nottinghamshire
Askham Bryan College – North Yorkshire
Bedlingtonshire Community High School – Northumberland
Bishop Challoner Girls School – London
Broadgreen International School – Liverpool
Cardinal Griffin Catholic College – Staffordshire
Carr Hill High School and Sixth Form Centre – Lancashire
Central Foundation Boys' School – London
Chichester Free School – Chichester
Ernest Bevin College – London
Gravesend Grammar School – Kent
Hugh Baird College – Merseyside
Khalsa Secondary Academy – Buckinghamshire
Kings Leadership Academy Liverpool – Liverpool
Medway UTC – Kent
Newton Rigg College – Cumbria
Nova Hreod Academy – Swindon
Quintin Kynaston Academy – London
Rockwood Academy – Birmingham
South Shields Community School – Tyne and Wear
South Wiltshire University Technical College (UTC) – Salisbury
St Thomas More Catholic School – Tyne and Wear
The JCB Academy – Staffordshire
Tudor Grange Samworth Academy – Leicestershire
West Midlands Construction UTC – Wolverhampton

New state schools which have been approved to have cadet units at the November 2016 Approvals Board

Ash Manor School – Surrey

Aston University Engineering Academy – West Midlands

Barr Beacon School – West Midlands

Boldon School – Tyne and Wear

Cookstown High School – County Tyrone

Fir Vale School Academy – Yorkshire

Haberdashers' Aske's Knights Academy – Kent

Hayesfield Girls School – Somerset

Isle of Portland Aldridge Community Academy – Dorset

Knole Academy – Kent

Maxwelltown High School – Dumfries

Northbrook College – Sussex

Ron Dearing UTC – Hull

Shenfield High School – Essex

Sirius Academy West – Hull

St Antony's Catholic College – Manchester

The Dean Academy – Gloucestershire

The Hawthorne's Free School – Merseyside

The International School – West Midlands

The John Warner School – Hertfordshire

The Phoenix Collegiate – West Midlands

The Priory City of Lincoln Academy – Lincolnshire

The Priory Ruskin Academy – Lincolnshire

The Priory Witham Academy – Lincolnshire

The Victory Academy – Kent

New state schools which have been approved to have cadet units in 2017 to date

Acklam Grange School – North Yorkshire
Bishop Heber High School – Cheshire
Bloomfield Collegiate School – County Antrim
Chessington Community School – Surrey
Essa Academy – Greater Manchester
Fitzalan High School – Cardiff
Folkestone Academy – Kent
Harris Academy – Dundee
Heath Park – West Midlands
ISCA Academy – Devon
Kilwinning Academy – North Ayrshire
Kingsford Community School – London
Leicester College – Leicestershire
Lisnagarvey High School – County Antrim
Magnus CofE Academy – Nottinghamshire
Manor CofE Academy Trust – North Yorkshire
North East Wolverhampton Academy – West Midlands
North Somerset Enterprise and Technology College – Avon
Royton and Crompton School – Greater Manchester
Scarborough UTC – North Yorkshire
Sirius Academy North – East Yorkshire
St Matthew's RC High School – Greater Manchester
Stationers Crown Woods Academy – London
The Bishop's Blue Coat CofE High School – Cheshire
The Elizabethan Academy – Nottinghamshire
The King's Academy – North Yorkshire
The Petersfield School – Hampshire
UTC Norfolk – Norfolk
UTC Warrington – Cheshire
Westbourne Academy – Suffolk
Weston College – North Somerset

Please note: Approval of a cadet unit is only part of the process and the timescales of when cadets will begin parading in their school, or indeed if the school will actually proceed to that point, depends on a number of factors.