Freedom of Information Act 2000: Fuel duty

Thank you for your Freedom of Information enquiry of 11 September 2017.

You asked for the following information:

"The Governments net income for the financial year 2015/2016 from the sale of both petroleum and diesel fuels in the United Kingdom.

Should these figures be specifically available for England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales I would appreciate the breakdown."

I can confirm that HM Treasury does not hold information within the scope of your request.

However, you may find it helpful to know that details of UK Government receipts from the sale of petroleum and diesel are published online by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) at:

<https://www.uktradeinfo.com/Statistics/Pages/TaxAndDutybulletins.aspx>

From the first table select 'Hydrocarbon Oils Duties', then sheet two of the spreadsheet.

Figures broken down for England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland are also published by HMRC at:

https://www.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/557572/Disaggregated_tax_and_NICs_receipts_-_information_and_analysis.pdf (page 28)

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us. Please quote the reference number above in any future communications. Should you have any queries about the published information, you may wish to contact HMRC directly. Details of how to do so can be found on the GOV.UK website.

Yours sincerely
