The Armed Forces Covenant

An Enduring Covenant Between

The People of the United Kingdom

Her Majesty's Government

— and —

All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

And their Families

The first duty of Government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfil that responsibility on behalf of the Government, sacrificing some civilian freedoms, facing danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty. Families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed Forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval Service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve our respect and support, and fair treatment.

Those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is appropriate in some cases, especially for those who have given most such as the injured and the bereaved.

This obligation involves the whole of society: it includes voluntary and charitable bodies, private organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed Forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty unites the country and demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in upholding this Covenant.

Section 1: Principles Of The Armed Forces Covenant

1.1 We Hampshire Constabulary will endeavour in our business dealings to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, which are:

- no member of the Armed Forces Community should face disadvantage in the provision of public and commercial services compared to any other citizen
- in some circumstances special treatment may be appropriate especially for the injured or bereaved.

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

2.1 Hampshire Constabulary recognises the value serving personnel, reservists, veterans and military families bring to our business. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, by:

Promote our support for the Armed Forces by;

- Publicising the Armed Forces Covenant commitments and logo on our website and social media
- Promote Reserve Force membership within the organisation and general recruitment activity
- Promote Armed Forces Day and Reserve Day via our intranet and encourage employees to participate in Armed Forces Day local events

Support staff who are members of Reserve Forces by accommodating mobilisation/training we will;

- Accommodate Reservists training commitments wherever possible
- Maintain our Force policy that provides extra leave for staff to attend annual training camps
- Release Reservists who are mobilised, except in exceptional cases
- Put in place an Armed Forces Champion who will act as a central point of contact for Reserves
- Establish an Armed Forces network to provide a supportive forum for Reservists

Seeking to support ex Service men and women;

- Seeking to support the employment of veterans young and old and working with Career Transition Partnership (CTP) in order to establish a tailored employment pathway for Service leavers
- Value and recognise military skills and qualifications when interviewing for positions
- Holding industry insight days to develop an understanding between military and the opportunities available at Hampshire Constabulary
- Advertising vacancies on the Career Transition Partnership website
- Providing tools to support Service leavers to understand the transferability of their skills into Hampshire Constabulary
- Participating in the Career Transition Partnership's events in the South East
- Seeking to make work placements available through the Ministry of Defence's Careers Transition Partnership (CTP), across a variety of areas within Hampshire Constabulary
- Supporting injured, wounded and sick military leavers in finding employment opportunities at Hampshire Constabulary

Support Service spouse and partners by;

- Recognising the need to grant leave whenever possible before, during and after a partner is deployed overseas
- Using our policies for compassionate and emergency leave in the event of bereavement or serious injury
- If possible attempt to find alternative employment within the business in another location if the spouse/partner needs to move accompany their Service partner

Support local Cadet Units by;

- Allowing extra leave for staff who are instructors for annual training camps
- Encourage staff to become Cadet helpers or instructors

2.2 We will publicise these commitments through our literature and/or on our website, setting out how we will seek to honour them and inviting feedback from the Service community and our customers on how we are doing.
