Introduction

This consultation seeks views on the future of Bridgeton, Castlemilk and Maryhill jobcentres, including the closure of the buildings and the services provided being transferred to other jobcentres in the city of Glasgow. The closures will contribute to the consolidation of the Glasgow jobcentre network and, through disposal, provide the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) with the opportunity to deliver improved customer services at reduced costs to the taxpayer through better use of the office space we occupy.

About this consultation

Who this consultation is aimed at

The consultation seeks the views of everyone with an interest in the services of Bridgeton, Castlemilk and Maryhill jobcentres.

Purpose of the consultation

The results of the consultation will be used to inform the department's decisions about service provision following the proposed closure of the Bridgeton, Castlemilk and Maryhill jobcentres and the delivery of services to the local community.

Duration of the consultation

The consultation period begins on Monday 19 December 2016 and runs until Tuesday 31 January 2017 at 5pm.

Government response

We will aim to publish the government response to the consultation on the GOV.UK website. The consultation principles encourage Departments to publish a response within 12 weeks or provide an explanation why this isn't possible. Where consultation is linked to a statutory instrument, responses should be published before or at the same time as the instrument is laid.

The report will summarise the responses.

How we consult

Consultation principles

This consultation is being conducted in line with the revised Cabinet Office consultation principles published in January 2016. These principles give clear guidance to government departments on conducting consultations.

Feedback on the consultation process

We value your feedback on how well we consult. If you have any comments about the consultation process (as opposed to comments about the issues which are the subject of the consultation), including if you feel that the consultation does not adhere to the values expressed in the consultation principles or that the process could be improved, please address them to:

Introduction

After 20 years, the national contract covering many Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) offices expires on 31 March 2018. This gives the department an opportunity to review what offices are needed in the future, taking account of the welfare reforms that will be delivered over the coming years and the services on which so many of our customers depend.

By paying only for the space we need we will save many millions of pounds of taxpayers' money. Where it makes sense to do so, we will also continue to make use of opportunities to co-locate and share buildings with other organisations.

The financial savings secured from improving the efficiency of our estate is an integral part of the department's overall financial plan.

What this means for Glasgow

1. DWP is committed to maintaining a network of jobcentres, across Great Britain, delivering services that support an effective welfare system that enables people to achieve financial independence by providing assistance and guidance into employment. Our commitment to Glasgow means we are proposing an estate that is right for the city, our benefit claimants and our colleagues; an estate that will deliver improved services by bringing together some neighbouring jobcentres where we can achieve access to more employers and partners. Our proposals will provide an estate that gives access to more employment opportunities for local claimants and allow us to achieve significant savings for the taxpayer.

The proposal

2. The city of Glasgow is split into 4 geographical areas - north, south, east and west. Jobcentres were historically built up within these areas, primarily within large housing estates. As unemployment has dropped across the city, so has the use of some of these smaller jobcentres.

3. DWP propose to bring these smaller jobcentres together into larger existing sites within the city's 4 geographical areas while retaining sites in locations which are accessible to all residents. Our overriding priority has been to ensure the locations of the sites we have proposed for retention are as accessible as possible to all of our claimants. We believe our current proposals are the best way to achieve this in Glasgow.
4. The larger sites are all geographically based in locations around the city that can offer better services to our claimants. This approach builds on the life changing improvements DWP has already delivered over recent years for the city by bringing services together to offer additional support to those who need it most.
5. We believe that it is a reasonable expectation that claimants travel to an office within 3 miles or 20 minutes by public transport of their existing jobcentre. This is an approach applied across the jobcentre network and not specific to Glasgow. If a proposed closure is outside of these criteria, we have chosen to consult publicly. This will ensure that we take into account the impact of any closure before we make a final decision.
6. This consultation proposes that 3 jobcentres are closed as follows:
 - Bridgeton Jobcentre;
 - Castlemilk Jobcentre; and
 - Maryhill Jobcentre.
7. We have carefully considered where the workload and services of the jobcentres proposed for closure, could be relocated. We propose that service delivery for Bridgeton Jobcentre will relocate to Shettleston Jobcentre, services for Castlemilk Jobcentre will move to Newlands Jobcentre and, in respect of Maryhill Jobcentre, services will be merged with Springburn Jobcentre.
8. In designing the future estate, and making this proposal for these jobcentres, we have sought to maintain the services we offer claimants and to minimise the impact on claimants travel as far as possible. In some instances, this may mean slightly longer and slightly shorter journeys for some of our claimants.
9. Annex A illustrates estimated travel time between the jobcentres we propose to merge, using shortest journey times by public transport and by car.

10. By consulting publicly about our proposals, we are seeking your views on the office mergers, including the impact on travel times and costs, and on support available to claimants and the wider population.

11. When considering responses to this consultation and making decisions regarding the future of these jobcentres, ministers will consider whether effective access to services can be maintained, whether the proposal creates any significant cost issues for claimants and, the closure offers value for money for the taxpayer.

Questionnaire

Question 1: Do you agree with the proposals? What overall comments would you like to make on the proposals?

Question 2: Will the proposals to close Bridgeton, Castlemilk and Maryhill jobcentres have a direct impact on you? If yes, please provide further details.

Question 3: If you currently use Jobcentre Plus services at these jobcentres, what impacts are there on the time and cost taken to travel to your new jobcentre?

Question 4: Are there any other particular impacts of the proposals that DWP should take into account when making a decision?

Question 5: Are there alternative services that could be provided that would be a benefit to some claimants? For example this could be a member of Jobcentre Plus staff based in a community venue to provide help with looking for work. Please explain your answer, with specific examples and evidence of the potential demand for the service where possible.

Question 6: Please provide any additional comments that you have.

Thank you for participating in this consultation.

Annex A

This table provides estimates of travel times between the jobcentres we are proposing to close and the jobcentres from where future services will be delivered.

Jobcentre proposed for closure	Proposed location for service delivery	Distance	Public Transport	Car
Bridgeton Jobcentre	Shettleston Jobcentre	2.7 miles	Approximately 30 minutes	11 minutes
Castlemilk Jobcentre	Newlands Jobcentre	3.9 miles	Approximately 45 minutes	14 minutes
Maryhill Jobcentre	Springburn Jobcentre	2.9 miles	Approximately 30 minutes	11 minutes
