Ref. FOI2017/09093

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 20 September 2017 requesting the following information:

"I would like to know who to approach regarding the sale of Chetwynd Barracks in Nottingham, my house backs onto the Barracks and I was wondering if there was an opportunity to acquire a small portion of the land in order to extend my back garden?"

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD) and I can confirm that no information in scope of your request is held.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note that Chetwynd Barracks is not due for disposal until 2021. In accordance with HM Treasury guidelines, any surplus land and property would be first offered to other Government departments and public bodies for alternate use. The MOD policy is to sell through open competition to achieve the best price.

All government property and land to either rent or buy is listed on gov.uk using the link below. The Government Property Finder allows you to find government-owned property, buildings or land in the UK by location or government department.
