Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0109-17

Thank you for your email of 27 January asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

For copies of correspondence between Argentina and the British Government over the naming of Queen Elizabeth Land in 2012. This should include any correspondence chain after Argentina's Foreign Ministry delivered a formal note of protest to the British Ambassador in Buenos Aires.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

Please find attached the information that the FCO can release to you.

Yours sincerely,

South America Department

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
