

Newton-Paulet Fund: results of the first call for workshops and researcher travel grants

The Newton Fund (UK) and Peru's National Council for Science, Technology and Technological Innovation (CONCYTEC) will fund ten travel grants and nine workshops through the British Council's Researcher Links programme. Find out the results here.

The British Council's Researcher Links programme aims to contribute to scientific and research cooperation through exchanges and workshops, creating links between Peruvian and British scientists and researchers. After the evaluation process led by experts both in the UK and Peru, the selected proposals to receive funding are as follows:
