

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant

Respondent

Mr L Fogarty

v

College of North West London

Heard at: Watford

On: 30 January 2018

Before: Employment Judge Henry

JUDGMENT

1. The claimant's application dated 18 December 2017 for reconsideration of the judgment sent to the parties on 4 December 2017 is refused.

REASONS

2. There is no reasonable prospect of the original decision being varied or revoked, because the application for reconsideration presented on 15 grounds, restates submissions that were presented to the tribunal and fully considered or otherwise argument on fact, which had equally been considered and a determination made thereon. There is nothing presented by the application for reconsideration that the tribunal has not already considered in giving its judgment.
3. With specific regard the claimant's ground 1 of his application, it is specifically here recorded that, the issue of disability was not an issue for the tribunal's determination, and as regard the claimant's disability being a factor in mitigation, such an argument had not been presented to the tribunal, but to the contrary, disability had been specifically excluded as a factor in mitigation in the commission of the acts, which the claimant was accused of, and dismissed for.
4. The claimant's application for reconsideration is refused.
