

ACQUISITION BY TRINITY MIRROR PLC OF CERTAIN ASSETS OF NORTHERN & SHELL MEDIA GROUP LIMITED

Initial Enforcement Order made by the Competition and Markets Authority pursuant to section 72(2) of the Enterprise Act 2002 (the Act)

Whereas:

- (a) the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) has reasonable grounds for suspecting that it is or may be the case that Trinity Mirror plc (TM) and certain assets of Northern & Shell Media Group Limited (publishing assets of Northern & Shell) have ceased to be distinct;
- (b) the CMA is considering, pursuant to section 22 of the Act, whether it is or may be the case that a relevant merger situation has been created and whether the creation of that situation has resulted or may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition in any market or markets in the United Kingdom (UK);
- (c) the CMA wishes to ensure that no action is taken pending final determination of any reference under section 22 of the Act which might prejudice that reference or impede the taking of any action by the CMA under Part 3 of the Act which might be justified by the CMA's decisions on the reference; and
- (d) the circumstances set out in section 72(6) of the Act do not apply and the reference has not been finally determined in accordance with section 79(1) of the Act.

Now for the purposes of preventing pre-emptive action in accordance with section 72(2) of the Act the CMA makes the following order addressed to TM (Order).

Commencement, application and scope

1. This Order commences on the commencement date: 1 March 2018.
2. This Order applies to TM.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, no act or omission shall constitute a breach of this Order, and nothing in this Order shall oblige TM to reverse any act or omission, in each case to the extent that it occurred or was completed prior to the commencement date.

Management of the TM and publishing assets of Northern & Shell businesses until determination of proceedings

4. Except with the prior written consent of the CMA, TM shall not, during the specified period, take any action which might prejudice a reference of the transaction under section 22 of the Act or impede the taking of any action under the Act by the CMA which may be justified by the CMA's decisions on such a reference, including any action which might:
 - (a) lead to the integration of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business with the TM business;
 - (b) transfer the ownership or control of the TM business or the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or any of their subsidiaries; or
 - (c) otherwise impair the ability of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or the TM business to compete independently in any of the markets affected by the transaction.
5. Further and without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 4 and subject to paragraph 3, TM shall at all times during the specified period procure that, except with the prior written consent of the CMA:
 - (a) the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business is carried on separately from the TM business and the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business's separate sales or brand identity is maintained;
 - (b) the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business and the TM business are maintained as a going concern and sufficient resources are made available for the development of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business and the TM business, on the basis of their respective pre-merger business plans;
 - (c) except in the ordinary course of business, no substantive changes are made to the organisational structure of, or the management responsibilities within, the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or the TM business;
 - (d) the nature, description, range and quality of goods and/or services supplied in the UK by each of the two businesses are maintained and preserved;

- (e) except in the ordinary course of business for the separate operation of the two businesses:
 - (i) all of the assets of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business and the TM business are maintained and preserved, including facilities and goodwill;
 - (ii) none of the assets of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or the TM business are disposed of; and
 - (iii) no interest in the assets of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or the TM business is created or disposed of;
- (f) there is no integration of the information technology of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell or TM businesses, and the software and hardware platforms of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business shall remain essentially unchanged, except for routine changes and maintenance;
- (g) the customer and supplier lists of the two businesses shall be operated and updated separately and any negotiations with any existing or potential customers and suppliers in relation to the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business will be carried out by the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business alone and for the avoidance of doubt the TM business will not negotiate on behalf of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business (and vice versa) or enter into any joint agreements with the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business (and vice versa);
- (h) all existing contracts of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business and the TM business continue to be serviced by the business to which they were awarded;
- (i) no changes are made to key staff of the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or TM business;
- (j) no key staff are transferred between the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business and the TM business;
- (k) all reasonable steps are taken to encourage all key staff to remain with the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business and the TM business; and
- (l) no business secrets, know-how, commercially-sensitive information, intellectual property or any other information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to either of the two businesses shall pass, directly or indirectly, from the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates) to the TM business (or any of its employees, directors, agents or affiliates), or vice versa, except where strictly necessary in the ordinary course of business (including, for example, where required for compliance with external regulatory and/or accounting obligations or for due diligence, integration planning or the completion of any merger control proceedings relating to the transaction) and on the basis that, should the transaction be prohibited, any records or copies (electronic or otherwise) of such information that have passed, wherever they may be held, will be returned to the business to which they relate and any copies destroyed.

Compliance

6. TM shall procure that each of its subsidiaries complies with this Order as if the Order had been issued to each of them.
7. TM shall provide to the CMA such information or statement of compliance as it may from time to time require for the purposes of monitoring compliance by TM and its subsidiaries with this Order. In particular, on 15 March 2018 and subsequently every two weeks (or, where this does not fall on a working day, the first working day thereafter) the Chief Executive Officer of TM or other persons of TM as agreed with the CMA shall, on behalf of TM, provide a statement to the CMA in the form set out in the Annex to this Order confirming compliance with this Order.
8. At all times, TM shall, or shall procure that Northern & Shell shall, actively keep the CMA informed of any material developments relating to the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or the TM business, which includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) details of key staff who leave or join the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business or the TM business;
 - (b) any interruption of the Northern & Shell or TM business (including without limitation its procurement, production, logistics, sales and employee relations arrangements) that has prevented it from operating in the ordinary course of business for more than 24 hours;
 - (c) all substantial customer volumes won or lost or substantial changes to the customer contracts for the Northern & Shell or TM business including any substantial changes in customers' demand; and
 - (d) substantial changes in the Northern & Shell or TM business's contractual arrangements or relationships with key suppliers.

9. If TM has any reason to suspect that this Order might have been breached it shall immediately notify the CMA and any monitoring trustee that TM may be directed to appoint under paragraph 10.
10. The CMA may give directions to a specified person or to a holder of a specified office in any body of persons (corporate or unincorporated) to take specified steps for the purpose of carrying out, or ensuring compliance with, this Order, or do or refrain from doing any specified action in order to ensure compliance with the Order. The CMA may vary or revoke any directions so given.
11. TM shall comply in so far as it is able with such directions as the CMA may from time to time give to take such steps as may be specified or described in the directions for the purpose of carrying out or securing compliance with this Order.

Interpretation

12. The Interpretation Act 1978 shall apply to this Order as it does to Acts of Parliament.

13. For the purposes of this Order:

'the Act' means the Enterprise Act 2002;

'an affiliate' of a person is another person who satisfies the following condition, namely that any enterprise (which, in this context, has the meaning given in section 129(1) of the Act) that the first person carries on from time to time and any enterprise that the second person carries on from time to time would be regarded as being under common control for the purposes of section 26 of the Act;

'business' has the meaning given by section 129(1) and (3) of the Act;

'commencement date' means 1 March 2018;

'control' includes the ability directly or indirectly to control or materially to influence the policy of a body corporate or the policy of any person in carrying on an enterprise;

'the decisions' means the decisions of the CMA on the questions which it is required to answer by virtue of section 35 of the Act;

'key staff' means staff in positions of executive or managerial responsibility and/or whose performance affects the viability of the business;

'Northern & Shell' means Northern & Shell Media Group Limited, a company register in the United Kingdom – company number 04086466;

'the ordinary course of business' means matters connected to the day-to-day supply of goods and/or services by Northern & Shell or TM and does not include matters involving significant changes to the organisational structure or related to the post-merger integration of Northern & Shell and TM;

'publishing assets of Northern & Shell business' means the business and assets of Northern & Shell that were the subject of the transaction as at the commencement date;

'specified period' means the period beginning on the commencement date and terminating in accordance with section 72(6) of the Act;

'subsidiary', unless otherwise stated, has the meaning given by section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006;

'TM' means Trinity Mirror plc, a company registered in the United Kingdom – company number 00082548;

'the TM business' means the business of TM and its subsidiaries but excluding the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business, carried on as at the commencement date;

'the transaction' means the transaction by which TM and certain assets of Northern & Shell have ceased to be distinct within the meaning of section 23 of the Act;

'the two businesses' means the TM business and the publishing assets of Northern & Shell business; unless the context requires otherwise, the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
