WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT

Department

The Government Legal Department (GLD) is the largest provider of legal services across government, working with all the main Whitehall Departments. From roads to rivers, and health to human rights, our work touches on most aspects of public life.

The department has more than 14 client-facing advisory teams who provide legal advice on the development, design and implementation of government policies and decisions, draft secondary legislation and work with Parliamentary Counsel on primary legislation. Our cross-cutting expert service groups for Litigation, Employment and Commercial Law provide specialist legal services to a wide range of government departments and public bodies.

We are a non-ministerial government department with more than 2,200 employees, around 1,800 of who are solicitors or barristers. The department is based primarily in London but has teams in Bristol and Leeds.

As an organisation our vision is to be trusted by government to provide consistently excellent and value for money services so government departments want to come to us to meet their legal needs, to be known throughout the legal profession for the quality of our legal work, and to be the best employer for our people.

VACANCY DESCRIPTION

The Ministry of Defence is the largest UK Government Department. Its mission is to defend the United Kingdom and Overseas Territories, our people and interests; and to act as a force for good by strengthening international peace and security. As you would expect, there is a huge and complex support structure that spends more than £10 billion each year in equipping, supplying and supporting the UK's Armed Forces. A key role in this work falls to the Defence Equipment and Support Agency (responsible for purchasing military platforms such as Eurofighter and the Future Aircraft Carriers and for ensuring that the equipment supplied to the Armed Forces continues to operate at maximum efficiency).

The MOD Director Legal Services is responsible for civilian legal support and services to MOD Ministers and the Department. There are legal teams in London, Bristol, Cyprus and Germany – which provide legal advice across the full range of the Department's activities. The particular areas of legal work include -

- commercial procurement
- international relations and armed conflict
- Lawfare
- retirement and war pensions
- Armed Forces legislation
- the Ministry of Defence Police;
- the European Convention on Human Rights;
- disclosure of information

Posts

The posts we are filling are in the Commercial Law directorate based in Bristol, in the purpose built headquarters of the Defence Equipment and Support Agency at Abbey Wood. The team presently consists of 31 lawyers, 8 Legal Executives and a number of support staff. Within the team there are currently seven main units, each of which advises on general commercial matters and on the following particular specialist areas –

- Advising the MOD in its major projects. You would be assisting in initial business planning decisions, appointing and working with external lawyers, advising on public law issues, including the application of law and the relevant position post Brexit to procurement decisions, drafting contractual documentation, assisting in bidder selection and in negotiating with bidders to ensure the best possible arrangements are put in place. The work calls, amongst other skills, for the ability to understand the commercial world and practice, and provides the opportunity to be involved in new developments in Partnering and Alliancing;
- Advising on the effects of different regulatory structures on MOD's commercial activities. You could be involved in advising on the environmental impact of certain projects, including possible land disposals, on the application of competition law in relation to mergers and acquisitions, or state aids or on the impact of data protection and freedom of information regimes on commercial matters;
- Advising on international activities. The MOD carries out much of its procurement in conjunction with the governments of other countries, where the arrangements are underpinned by agreements that require negotiation with assistance of careful legal advice.
- Advising the MOD on its legal position in disputes on major contracts. Any litigation is handled by the commercial litigation division of GLD, whose lawyers you will find yourself working with very closely.

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

We are serious about getting people with the right motivation and skills to be successful in our business. Candidates meeting the advertised minimum eligibility criteria, may be asked to complete an online Critical Reasoning Test before selection for interview.

If selected, on the day of the interview you will be asked to undertake a written exercise in addition to the traditional interview. We may hold a reserve list if the number of successful candidates after interview exceeds the number of available vacancies.

- Make difficult decisions by pragmatically weighing up the complexities involved against the need to act
- Analyse and evaluate data from various sources to identify pros and cons and identify risks in order to make well considered decisions
- Identify the main issues in complex problems, clarify understanding or stakeholder expectations, to seek best option

Engaging People – Collaborating and partnering

- Work as an effective team player, managing team dynamics when working across Departmental and other boundaries.
- Seek constructive outcomes in discussions, challenge assumptions but remain willing to compromise when it is beneficial
- Demonstrate genuine care for others, is approachable and builds strong interpersonal relationships

Delivering results – Managing a quality service

- Exemplify positive customer service behaviours and promote a culture focused on ensuring customer needs are met.
- Make clear, pragmatic and manageable plans for service delivery using programme and project management disciplines
- Create regular opportunities for staff and customers to help improve service quality and demonstrate a visible involvement

Delivering results – Delivering at pace

- Get the best out of people by giving enthusiastic and encouraging messages about priorities, objectives and expectations

- Review, challenge and adjust performance levels to ensure quality outcomes are delivered on time, rewarding success
- Adopt clear processes and standards for managing performance at all levels
- Maintain effective performance in difficult and challenging circumstances, encouraging others to do the same.

Engaging People – Building Capability for All

- Ensure that individual and organisational learning and talent opportunities are fully exploited to enhance organisational capacity
- Coach and support colleagues to take responsibility for their own development (through giving accountability, varied assignments and on-going feedback)
- Establish and drive discussions to learn from experience and adapt organisational processes and plans
- Prioritise and role model continuous self learning and development, including leadership, management and people skills

For further information please see attached competency framework.

For this GLD campaign, only 'Legal Professional Skills', 'Motivational Fit' and 'Communication' will be assessed at the application form/short-listing stage. Should you be successful in being invited to interview, your performance in the key competency areas will be tested.

MINIMUM ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Academic

Applicants should have a minimum of a 2:1 honours degree in their first degree (in any subject). Where an applicant holds an overseas degree qualification this should be equivalent to a 2.1 degree. However, this Department will consider applicants who do not have a 2.1 degree but only where satisfactory evidence of equivalent high level academic and/or professional achievement can be provided (e.g. via relevant experience and results achieved for the Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL)/CPE, Legal Practice Course (LPC), Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC)).

Professional Qualifications

The recruiting department has specified this as: Applicants must be (or about to become) qualified to practise as a Solicitor, Barrister or Chartered Legal Executive in England and Wales. You must have completed a training contract/pupillage/qualifying employment, or have been exempted from this by the Law Society, the Bar Council or CILEX. Applicants qualified in a jurisdiction outside England and Wales will be required to undertake the Qualified Lawyers Transfer Scheme within 5 years of appointment. GLD will not meet the cost.

Professional entry criteria for Chartered Legal Executives (i.e. Fellows): Chartered Legal Executives are eligible to apply where (i) a Qualifying Law Degree (QLD) is held; or (ii) the Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL)/CPE has been completed; or (iii) where exams have been passed (i.e. a score of 50% or above achieved) at CILEx Level 6* in all of the following seven foundation subjects in law:

1. Contract Law
2. Criminal Law
3. Equity and Trusts Law
4. European Union Law
5. Land Law
6. Public Law
7. Law of Tort

* Note: There are specific requirements relating to academic achievement in the CILEx Level 6 exams where these are being used to demonstrate 2.1 degree equivalence as set out below.

Chartered Legal Executives should note that the GLD will be willing to accept an, overall, average score of 65% or above across exams passed in the seven foundation subjects in law (where studied at CILEx Level 6) as demonstrating 2.1 degree equivalence (where a 2.1 degree is not held).

We also welcome applications from those who expect to qualify shortly.

Nationality

GLD is part of the wider Civil Service and therefore the Civil Service nationality rules apply. If a post is described as 'reserved', then only UK nationals will be eligible to be able to apply. If a post is advertised as a 'non-reserved' post, as our posts generally are, those listed below will be eligible to apply:

- UK Nationals (and British Protected Persons);
- Commonwealth citizens and nationals of the European Economic Area (EEA);
- Individuals with dual nationality where one part is British; and
- Certain family members of EEA, Swiss and Turkish nationals (as set out in the Civil Service nationality rules).

Please note that it is possible to meet the above nationality requirements and still not be legally entitled to work in the UK. UK Visas and Immigration operates a points-based immigration policy which applies to the migrants from outside the European Economic Area, Switzerland and Turkey.

It is the applicant's responsibility to check whether this policy applies to them. When applying, applicants will be asked about their nationality at birth, whether they are subject to immigration control, whether there are any restrictions on your continued residence or employment in the UK etc. Detailed document checks will be made prior to employment.

Applications will be accepted from those applicants who may require sponsorship for a work permit under the UK Border Agency's points-based immigration policy. Applications which require sponsorship will, however, only be considered if no suitable settled worker is identified for the position.

Guaranteed Interview Scheme

GLD will guarantee an interview to any disabled applicant who meets the minimum criteria. The Equality Act 2010 defines a disabled person as someone who has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and adverse long-term effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

To meet the minimum criteria, candidates applying under the terms of the Guaranteed Interview Scheme (GIS) must:

- Meet all aspects of the stated minimum eligibility criteria (i.e. academic, nationality, and professional criteria);
- Meet the standard set for the Critical Reasoning Test (where used); and
- Obtain a minimum score for (i) the GLD core competencies being assessed at the application stage and (ii) against any job specific criteria specified.

Candidates applying under the terms of the GIS, who meet the minimum criteria outlined above, will be invited to attend an interview.

PRE-EMPLOYMENT CHECKS

All government departments are required to ensure that any personnel employed by them comply with the Baseline Personnel Security Standard (BPSS) before they take up employment.

This standard involves verification of identity; nationality and immigration status (including an entitlement to undertake the work in question); employment history (past 3 years) and criminal record (unspent convictions).

You will be asked to produce original documents when attending interview to enable us to verify the above if you are successful. The information which you provide will be treated in the strictest confidence by the GLD and its authorised representative (TMP Worldwide).

Supplying false information or failing to disclose relevant information could be grounds for rejection of your application, or, dismissal and could amount to a criminal offence. Your referees will not be approached until your permission has been obtained following success at interview.

Regarding criminal record checks, a basic disclosure will normally be required (covering convictions considered unspent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974). This will apply to successful candidates only and your permission will be required before checks are undertaken.

Successful candidates will also be required to be cleared to SC (security check) level. Some posts will require clearance to a level higher than SC in view of the sensitive nature of the work. You will be told if this applies to you. Details of HM Government vetting policy can be found here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/hmg-personnel-security-controls>

DATA PROTECTION

The information which you provide will be protected and processed for the purpose of successful completion of the Baseline Personnel Security Standard, in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act (1998).

If you have any concerns about any of the questions which you are asked to complete or what we will do with the information you provide, you should discuss these with the GLD Recruitment Team.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

GLD processes are underpinned by the principle of selection for appointment on merit on the basis of fair and open competition as outlined in the Civil Service Commission's Recruitment Principles which can be found at <http://civilservicecommission.independent.gov.uk>

If you feel your application has not been treated in accordance with these Principles and you wish to make a complaint, please contact Caroline Anerville either by telephone on 0207 210 3436 or by email at: caroline.anerville@governmentlegal.gov.uk in the first instance.

If you are not satisfied with the response you receive from the department, you can contact the Civil Service Commission.
