[REDACTED]

26 March 2018

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your e-mail of 6 March about radar at Leuchars Station. You requested the following information:

*"....- the planned date of withdrawal or decommissioning of the Watchman primary surveillance radar at Leuchars Station.
- what equipment will be provided to replace the radar services currently provided by the Watchman radar at Leuchars Station."*

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

Under current plans, the contract in place for radar services at Leuchars Station expires in 2021. At this stage no firm decision about a replacement for Watchman primary surveillance radar has been made.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

Air DRes Sec 3a1
