

Children travelling in taxis or private hire vehicles may be being exploited by gangs involved in drug crime.

Know the signs to spot.

County lines gangs use children to courier drugs and money across the country. Many of these children travel by taxis or private hire vehicles.

Have you seen:

A child, sometimes as young as 12, travelling alone

Are they travelling during school hours or unusual hours (early in the morning, late at night)?

They might seem unfamiliar with the local area, or not have a local accent

Are they travelling a long distance?

Are they paying for these journeys in cash?

If you see something that doesn't feel right, or looks suspicious, concerning a child or young person you should report it to Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111.
