1. The Remedy Hearing in this matter has been listed to take place on the 10 and 11 December 2018 at Reading Employment Tribunal, 30-31 Friar Street, (Entrance in Merchants Place), Reading RG1 1DX commencing at 10.00 am.
2. This matter was listed for a remedy hearing to take place on the 26 March 2018. The respondent made an application for a reconsideration of the judgment made in favour of the claimant.
3. Having heard the submissions of the parties on the 26 March 2018 the employment tribunal concluded that there were no grounds for a reconsideration of the Judgment. The respondent asks the tribunal to reconsider its conclusions based on matters which the employment tribunal has already considered or alternatively the respondent had the opportunity of placing before the employment tribunal at the hearing. A reconsideration is not in the interests of justice.
4. On the 27 March 2018 the employment tribunal received an email from the respondent in which they seek a further reconsideration of the Judgment of the Tribunal. This has been forwarded to the claimant.
5. The further application for a reconsideration will be considered by the Employment Judge pursuant to Rule 72 (1). The Employment Judge will consider any representations from the claimant relating to the further application for a reconsideration received within 14 days of the date this order is sent to the parties.

6. If the decision of the Employment Judge is not to refuse the further application for a reconsideration on the grounds that it has no reasonable prospect of success the application for a reconsideration will be considered immediately before the remedy hearing and if appropriate the Employment Tribunal will expect the parties to immediately proceed with the remedy hearing.
