

SSE Retail/Npower

Disclosure of interests

The Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) does not believe that the following matters will prejudice the ability of the Inquiry Group to discharge its functions in an independent and impartial manner.

9 May 2018

Member disclosures

Susan Hankey

Susan Hankey was a partner and then a consultant in law firm CMS Cameron McKenna LLP (CMS) until April 2016. CMS advises gas and electricity companies and parents of such companies. During her time at CMS Susan advised some companies in the energy sector, including on competition issues. However, she herself has not been engaged in any such work during the last 2 years.

Anne Lambert

Anne Lambert has 73 B shares and 86 A shares in Royal Dutch Shell.

All of the Inquiry Group members are consumers of gas and electricity in their private capacity.