

Application for an environmental permit – Part E3 – Notification of surrender (flood risk activities)

Fill in this part of the form if you are notifying us of the surrender of all or part of your permit for flood risk activities. Please check that this is the latest version of the form available from our website.

Please read through this form and the guidance notes that came with it.

The form can be:

- 1 Saved onto a computer and then filled in. Please note that the form follows a logic that means questions will open or stay closed depending on a previous answer. So you may not be able to enter text in some boxes.
- 2 Printed off and filled in by hand. Please write clearly in the answer spaces.

Note: If you are no longer the operator undertaking the works but they are still being undertaken, you do not have to surrender the permit. You can transfer it to the new operator using part D1.

It will take less than 30 minutes to fill in this form.

Contents

- 1 About the permit
- 2 About your notification of surrender
- 3 Surrendering your whole environmental permit

We, the Environment Agency, will process the information you provide so that we can:

- deal with your application;
- make sure you keep to the conditions of the licence, permit or registration;
- process renewals; and
- keep the public registers up to date.

We may also process or release the information to:

- offer you documents or services relating to environmental matters;
- consult the public, public organisations and other organisations (for example, the Health and Safety Executive, local authorities, the emergency services, the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs) on environmental issues;
- carry out research and development work on environmental issues;
- provide information from the public register to anyone who asks;
- prevent anyone from breaking environmental law, investigate cases where environmental law may have been broken, and take any action that is needed;
- assess whether customers are satisfied with our service, and to improve our service; and
- respond to requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (if the Data Protection Act allows). We may pass the information on to our agents or representatives to do these things for us.

7 Declaration

If you knowingly or carelessly make a statement that is false or misleading in relation to this environmental permit (for yourself or anyone else), you may be committing an offence under the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) Regulations 2016.

A relevant person should make the declaration (see guidance notes on part E3). An agent acting on behalf of an applicant is NOT a relevant person.

If there are joint permit holders each must complete their own declaration.

I declare that the information in this notification is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

If you deliberately make a statement that is false or misleading in relation to this notification you may be liable to prosecution.

Tick this box to confirm that you understand and agree with the declaration above, then fill in the details below (you do not have to provide a signature as well)
