The Armed Forces Covenant

An Enduring Covenant Between

The People of the United Kingdom
Her Majesty's Government

– and –

All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

And their Families

The first duty of Government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfil that responsibility on behalf of the Government, sacrificing some civilian freedoms, facing danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty. Families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed Forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval Service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve our respect and support, and fair treatment.

Those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is appropriate in some cases, especially for those who have given most such as the injured and the bereaved.

This obligation involves the whole of society: it includes voluntary and charitable bodies, private organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed Forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty unites the country and demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in upholding this Covenant.

Section 1: Principles of the Armed Forces Covenant

1.1 Leominster Town Council will endeavour in our business dealings to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, which are:

- No member of the Armed Forces Community should face disadvantage in the provision of public and commercial services compared to any other citizen;
- In some circumstances special treatment may be appropriate especially for the injured or bereaved.

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

2.1 Leominster Town Council recognises the value serving personnel, reservists, veterans and military families bring to our local community. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, by:

- Encouraging and supporting the Armed Forces Communities, which includes veterans, service leavers, reservists, the spouses and families of serving members of the Armed Forces and Cadet Force Adult Volunteers within its Parish, enabling where possible the Armed Forces Community to help and support the wider community.
- Recognising and remembering the sacrifices faced by the Armed Forces Community.
- Restoring and maintaining the Memorial to the Fallen Armed Forces of Leominster.
- Encouraging the continuation of Armistice Day within the Armed Forces and wider local community.
- Continuing to encourage the growth of veteran support groups within Leominster's Polish Community and other similar communities in the town.
- Supporting the ongoing health and well-being of current and ex-service personnel, co-ordinating auxiliary organisations if required.
- Encouraging and supporting members of the Leominster Town Council staff to be actively involved as Adult Volunteers within the Armed Forces Cadet community.

2.2 We will publicise these commitments through our literature and/or on our website, setting out how we will seek to honour them and inviting feedback from the Service community and our customers on how we are doing.
