The 2018 Review of Parliamentary Constituencies

Volume two: Constituency names, designations and composition

About the 2018 Review

The Boundary Commission for England is an independent and impartial non-departmental public body responsible for reviewing Parliamentary constituency boundaries in England.

In 2016 we began a review of all the Parliamentary constituencies in England on the basis of rules set in the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 (as amended). The rules result in a significant reduction in the number of constituencies in England (from 533 to 501), and require every constituency – apart from two on the Isle of Wight – to have an electorate that is no smaller than 71,031, and no larger than 78,507. We submitted our final recommendations for new constituencies to Government in September 2018.

Final recommendations

Our final recommendations are set out in a report of three volumes. This volume, containing a list of local government wards included in each of the recommended Parliamentary constituencies, should be considered alongside Volume one: Report, which provides details on how we reached our final recommendations, and Volume three: Maps, which includes a detailed map of each proposed constituency.

About this volume

This volume contains details on the composition of each recommended constituency. In most cases this is provided with details of the local government wards that form a constituency but occasionally includes information on polling districts where we have divided wards between constituencies. The local government wards are those that were in force at the start of the review (as specified in the legislation).
