The Treasury are a government department designated^(a) for the purposes of section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972^(b) in relation to financial services.

The Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 2(2) of, and paragraph 1A of Schedule 2 to, the European Communities Act 1972 and section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018^(c), make the following Regulations.

A draft of these Regulations has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament in accordance with paragraph 1 of Schedule 7 to the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.

PART 1

General

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018.

(2) This regulation, regulations 2, 3, 15(5), for the purpose only of inserting regulation 47B into the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017^(d), and regulation 20 come into force on the day after the day on which these Regulations are made.

(a) S.I. 2012/1759.

(b) 1972 c.68. Section 2(2) was amended by section 27 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006 (c.51) and by section 3 of, and the Schedule to, the European Union (Amendment) Act 2008 (c.7). By virtue of the amendment of section 1(2) by section 1 of the European Economic Area Act 1993 (c.51), regulations may be made under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 to implement obligations of the United Kingdom created or arising by or under the Agreement on the European Economic Area signed at Oporto on 2nd May 1992 (Cm 2073) and the Protocol adjusting that Agreement signed at Brussels on 17th March 1993 (Cm 2183). Paragraph 1A was inserted into Schedule 2 by section 28 of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006. The European Communities Act 1972 is repealed with effect from exit day by section 1 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.

(c) 2018 c.16.

(d) S.I. 2017/701.

- (3) The other provisions in these Regulations come into force on exit day.

PART 2

Amendment of secondary legislation: European Communities Act 1972

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017

2. After regulation 2 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017, insert—

“References to EU Regulations etc

2A. Any reference in these Regulations to any EU Regulation, EU decision or EU tertiary legislation (within the meaning of section 20 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018) is, unless the contrary intention appears, to be treated as a reference to that EU regulation, EU decision or EU tertiary legislation as it has effect on the day on which the Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 are made.”.

The Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017

3. After regulation 2 of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017(a), insert—

“References to EU Regulations etc

2A. Any reference in these Regulations to any EU Regulation, EU decision or EU tertiary legislation (within the meaning of section 20 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018) is, unless the contrary intention appears, to be treated as a reference to that EU regulation, EU decision or EU tertiary legislation as it has effect on the day on which the Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 are made.”

(6) In Part 4 of Schedule 2, in the opening paragraph, for the words from the beginning to “Directive 2014/65/EU”, substitute “For the purposes of the list of investment services and activities in Part 3 of this Schedule, “investment advice” means the provision of personal recommendations to a client, either upon its request or at the initiative of the investment firm, in respect of one or more transactions relating to financial instruments. For these purposes”.

(7) After Article 9, insert—

“PART 5

Interpretation

Any expression in this Schedule which is used in the markets in financial instruments regulation (as amended by the Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018) has the same meaning as in the Regulation.”.

(8) For Schedule 3, substitute—

“SCHEDULE 3

Article 3(1)

Exemptions from the definition of “investment firm”

PART 1

1. The following persons are excluded from the definition of “investment firm”—
 - (a) the society incorporated by Lloyd’s Act 1871^(a) known by the name of Lloyd’s;
 - (b) an authorised person with a Part 4A permission to carry on the regulated activity of—
 - (i) effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance under article 10;
 - (ii) insurance risk transformation under article 13A;
 - (iii) managing the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd’s syndicate under article 57, when carrying on those activities (and any other activities permitted by rules made by the FCA or the PRA under the Act);
 - (c) a person (“P”) providing investment services exclusively for P’s parent undertakings, for P’s subsidiaries or for other subsidiaries of P’s parent undertakings;
 - (d) a person providing an investment service where that service is provided in an incidental manner in the course of a professional activity and that activity is regulated by legal or regulatory provisions or a code of ethics governing the profession which do not exclude the provision of that service;
 - (e) a person dealing on own account in financial instruments other than commodity derivatives or emission allowances or derivatives thereof and not providing any other investment services or performing any other investment activities in financial instruments other than commodity derivatives or emission allowances or derivatives thereof unless such persons—
 - (i) are market makers;
 - (ii) are members of or participants in a regulated market or an MTF, on the one hand, or have direct electronic access to a trading venue, on the other hand, except for non-financial entities who execute transactions on a trading venue

(a) 1871 c.xxi

which are objectively measurable as reducing risks directly relating to the commercial activity or treasury financing activity of those non-financial entities or their groups;

- (iii) apply a high-frequency algorithmic trading technique; or
- (iv) deal on own account when executing client orders;
- (f) an operator (within the meaning of regulation 3(2) of the Greenhouse Gas Emissions Trading Scheme Regulations 2012(a)), subject to compliance obligations under those Regulations who, when dealing in emission allowances, does not execute client orders and does not provide any investment services or perform any investment activities other than dealing on own account, provided that the operator does not apply a high-frequency algorithmic trading technique;
- (g) a person providing investment services consisting exclusively in the administration of employee-participation schemes;
- (h) a person (“P”) providing investment services which only involve both the administration of employee-participation schemes and the provision of investment services exclusively for P’s parent undertakings, for P’s subsidiaries or for other subsidiaries of P’s parent undertakings;
- (i) the Treasury, the Bank of England and other public bodies charged with or intervening in the management of the public debt in the United Kingdom or members of the European System of Central Banks;
- (j) a collective investment undertaking, pension fund or a depositary or manager of such an undertaking or fund;
- (k) a person (“P”)—
 - (i) dealing on own account, including a market maker, in commodity derivatives or emission allowances or derivatives thereof, excluding a person who deals on own account when executing client orders; or
 - (ii) providing investment services, other than dealing on own account, in commodity derivatives or emission allowances or derivatives thereof to the customers or suppliers of P’s main business,provided that in each case the activity in (i) or (ii), considered both individually and on an aggregate basis, is an ancillary activity to P’s main business, when considered on a group basis, and where paragraph 2 applies;
- (l) a person who provides investment advice in the course of providing another professional activity which is not an investment service or activity provided that the provision of such advice is not specifically remunerated;
- (m) associations set up by Danish and Finnish pension funds with the sole aim of managing the assets of pension funds that are members of those associations;
- (n) agenti di cambio whose activities and functions are governed by Article 201 of Italian Legislative Decree No 58 of 24 February 1998;
- (o) subject to paragraph 3, transmission system operators within the meaning of Article 2(4) of Directive 2009/72/EC and Article 2(4) of Directive 2009/73/EC when carrying out their tasks under the law of the United Kingdom or part of the United Kingdom relied on immediately before exit day to implement Directive 2009/72/EC or 2009/73/EC, under Regulation (EC) No 714/2009, under Regulation (EC) No 715/2009 or under network codes or guidelines adopted pursuant to those Regulations, any persons acting as service providers on their behalf to carry out their task under those legislative acts or under network codes or guidelines adopted pursuant to those Regulations, and any operator or administrator of an energy balancing mechanism, pipeline network or system to keep in balance the supplies and uses of energy when carrying out such tasks;

(a) S.I. 2012/3038.

- (p) central securities depositories as defined in point (1) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) 909/2014 on the European Parliament and of the Council on improving securities settlement in the European Union and on central securities depositories, except as provided for in Article 73 of that Regulation.

2. This paragraph applies if—

- (a) P’s main business is not—
 - (i) the provision of investment services;
 - (ii) banking activities requiring permission under Part 4A of the Act (or banking activities which would require such permission if they were carried on in the United Kingdom); or
 - (iii) acting as a market-maker in relation to commodity derivatives;
- (b) P does not apply a high-frequency algorithmic trading technique; and
- (c) P notifies the FCA under regulation 47 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017 that P makes use of this exemption and reports to the FCA, upon request, the basis on which P considers that P’s activity under points (i) and (ii) is ancillary to P’s main business.

3. The exemption in paragraph 1(p)—

- (a) only applies to the persons engaged in the activities set out in that sub-paragraph where they perform investment activities or provide investment services relating to commodity derivatives in order to carry out those activities;
- (b) does not apply with regard to the operation of a secondary market, including a platform for secondary trading in financial transmission rights.

4. References in this Schedule to “regulated markets”, “MTFs” and “trading venues” are to “UK regulated markets”, “UK MTFs” and “UK trading venues” within the meaning of Article 2(1)(13A), (14A) and (16A) respectively of the markets in financial instruments regulation.

5. Any expression used in this Part of this Schedule which is used in the markets in financial instruments regulation (as amended by the Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018) has the same meaning as in the regulation.

PART 2

Provision of investment service in an incidental manner

6. For the purpose of the exemption in paragraph 1(e), an investment service shall be deemed to be provided in an incidental manner in the course of a professional activity where the following conditions are satisfied—

- (a) a close and factual connection exists between the professional activity and the provision of the investment service to the same client, such that the investment service can be regarded as accessory to the main professional activity;
- (b) the provision of investment services to the clients of the main professional activity does not aim to provide a systematic source of income to the person providing the professional activity; and
- (c) the persons providing the professional activity do not market or otherwise promote their ability to provide investment services, except where these are disclosed to clients as being accessory to the main professional activity.”.

CHAPTER 2

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017

5. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017(a) are amended in accordance with this Chapter.

Introductory provisions

6. In regulation 1—

- (a) in paragraph (2)(a), omit paragraph (v);
- (b) in paragraph (3)(b)(i), at the beginning insert “any United Kingdom legislation which was relied on before exit day to implement”.

Interpretation

7.—(1) In regulation 2(1)—

- (a) for the definition of “algorithmic trading”, substitute—

““algorithmic trading” means trading in financial instruments where a computer algorithm automatically determines individual parameters of orders such as whether to initiate the order, the timing, price or quantity of the order or how to manage the order after its submission, with limited or no human intervention, and does not include any system that is only used for the purpose of routing orders to one or more trading venues or for the processing of orders involving no determination of any trading parameters or for the confirmation of orders or the post-trade processing of executed transactions;”;
- (b) for the definition of “ancillary services”, substitute—

““ancillary services” means any of the services and activities listed in Part 3A of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order;”;
- (c) insert after the definition of “ancillary services”—

““appropriate regulator” has the meaning given in section 55A of the Act;”
- (d) in the definition of “branch”, for “Article 4.1.30 (definitions) of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Article 2.1.20 of the markets in financial instruments regulation”;
- (e) in the definition of “client” for “Article 4.1.9 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Article 2.1.7 of the markets in financial instruments regulation”;
- (f) in the definition of “commodity derivative” for “Article 4.1.50 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Article 2.1.30 of the markets in financial instruments regulation”;
- (g) for the definition of “competent authority”, substitute—

““competent authority” means the authority designated by regulation 3;”;
- (h) in the definition of “credit institution” for “Article 4.1.27 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Article 2.1.19 of the markets in financial instruments regulation”;
- (i) for the definition of “derivative”, substitute—

(a) S.I. 2017/701.

- ““derivative” means a financial instrument referred to in paragraphs 4 to 10 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order;”;
- (j) for the definition of “direct electronic access” substitute—
- ““direct electronic access” means an arrangement where a member or participant or client of a trading venue permits a person to use its trading code so the person can electronically transmit orders relating to a financial instrument directly to the trading venue and includes arrangements which involve the use by a person of the infrastructure of the member or participant or client, or any connecting system provided by the member or participant or client, to transmit the orders (direct market access) and arrangements where such an infrastructure is not used by a person (sponsored access);”
- (k) in the definition of “emission allowance” for “point (11) of Section C of Annex 1 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “paragraph 11 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order”;
- (l) omit the definition of “ESMA”;
- (m) for the definition of “financial instrument”, substitute—
- ““financial instrument” means those instruments specified in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order, read with Part 2 of that Schedule;”;
- (n) after the definition of “financial instrument”, insert—
- ““high-frequency algorithmic trading technique” means an algorithmic trading technique characterised by—
- (a) infrastructure intended to minimise network and other types of latencies, including at least one of the following facilities for algorithmic order entry—
- (i) co-location;
- (ii) proximity hosting; or
- (iii) high-speed direct electronic access;
- (b) system-determination of order initiation, generation, routing or execution without human intervention for individual trades or orders; and
- (c) high message intraday rates which constitute orders, quotes or cancellations;”;
- (o) in the definition of “investment activity”, for “Section A of Annex 1 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order”;
- (p) in the definition of “investment firm”, for “Article 4.1.1 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Article 2.1A of the markets in financial instruments regulation”;
- (q) in the definition of “investment service”, for “Section A of Annex 1 of the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order”;
- (r) in the definition of “investment services and activities” for “Section A of Annex 1 to the markets in financial instruments directive”, substitute “Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order”;
- (s) for the definition of “multilateral trading facility”, substitute—
- ““multilateral trading facility” or “MTF”, “UK multilateral trading facility” and “EU multilateral trading facility” have the meanings given in Article 2.1.14, 2.1.14A and 2.1.14B respectively of the markets in financial instruments regulation;”;
- (t) for the definition of “regulated market” substitute—
- ““regulated market”, “UK regulated market” and “EU regulated market” have the meanings given in Article 2.1.13, 2.1.13A and 2.1.13B respectively of the markets in financial instruments regulation;”
- (u) after the definition of “regulated activity” insert—

““Regulated Activities Order” means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001(a);

“Regulation (EU) 2017/578” means Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/578 supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on markets in financial instruments with regard to regulatory technical standards specifying the requirements on market making agreements and schemes;

“Regulation (EU) 2017/589” means Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/589 supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards specifying the organisational requirements of investment firms engaged in algorithmic trading;

“Regulation (EU) 2017/591” means Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/591 supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards for the application of position limits to commodity derivatives;

“SME growth market” means a MTF that is registered as an SME growth market in accordance with Part 5.10 of the Market Conduct sourcebook containing rules made by the FCA under the Act;”;

(v) for the definition of “trading venue”, substitute—

(3) The steps referred to in this paragraph are that the person has, on or after the day on which this regulation comes into force and no later than 30 working days before the day on which exit day occurs, notified the FCA that the person wishes to be treated in accordance with paragraph 1 by—

(a) making an application for authorisation to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations; or

(b) making a statement to that effect and tendering the fee prescribed under paragraph 23 of Schedule 1ZA to the Act (if any).

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b), the statement must—

(a) be made in such manner, and during such period, as the FCA may direct; and

(b) contain, or be accompanied by, such other information as the FCA may direct.

(5) The FCA’s powers under these Regulations are exercisable in respect of a person to whom this regulation applies as they are in respect of a person who is authorised to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations, in particular in relation to the variation or cancellation of an authorisation to provide such a service.

(6) The power to give directions under this regulation includes the power—

(a) to give different directions in relation to different statements or categories of statements;

(b) to vary or revoke previous directions.

Regulator response

12B.—(1) Within 28 days beginning with the date of receipt of a notification made in accordance with regulation 12A(3)(a), the FCA must—

- (a) if it considers that the requirements of regulation 7 have been satisfied, confirm in writing to the person making the application that it constitutes a valid notification;
- (b) if it considers that those requirements are not satisfied, confirm in writing to the person making the application—
 - (i) that it does not constitute a valid application, and
 - (ii) the details of any requirements that have not been satisfied.

(2) Within 28 days beginning with the date of receipt of a notification made in accordance with regulation 12A(3)(b), the FCA must—

- (a) if it considers that the steps in regulation 12A(3) have been taken (in accordance with any direction), confirm in writing to the person making the statement that it constitutes a valid notification;
- (b) subject to paragraph (3), if it considers that the steps in regulation 12A(3) have not been taken (in accordance with any direction), confirm in writing to the person making the statement that—
 - (i) the notification was not valid; and
 - (ii) as applicable, the steps that have not been taken, or the directions that have not been complied with.

(3) Within 28 days beginning with the day of receipt of a notification made in accordance with regulation 12A(3)(b), the FCA may, if—

- (a) it considers that a direction given in accordance with regulation 12A(4) has not been complied with; and
- (b) it would not be possible or practicable for the applicant to comply with the direction in time, waive the requirement to comply with the direction and confirm in writing to the person submitting the statement that it nevertheless constitutes a valid notification.

Period during which regulation 12A is to apply

12C.—(1) For the purpose of regulation 12A(1), the period is one that begins with exit day and ends—

- (a) after one year beginning with the day on which exit day occurs, or
- (b) if earlier, with a day determined as follows.

(2) Paragraph (3) applies to a person who has applied for authorisation to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations on or after the date on which this regulation comes into force, and not withdrawn that application.

(3) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) if the application is granted, the period ends with the day before the date stated in the written notice (issued in accordance with regulation 10(6));
- (b) if the application is refused, the period ends with the day before the day stated in the decision notice (issued in accordance with regulation 10(9)(c)).

(4) Paragraph (5) applies to a person who has not applied for authorisation to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations on or after the date on which this regulation comes into force (or has made such an application but withdrawn it without submitting another).

(5) Where this paragraph applies, the period ends with the day before the day on which the decision notice (issued in accordance with regulation 11) takes effect.”.

“TITLE XI

REGULATIONS, DIRECTIONS AND TRANSFERRED FUNCTIONS

Article 50

Treasury Regulations

1. Any power to make regulations conferred on the Treasury by this Regulation is exercisable by statutory instrument.
2. Such regulations may—
 - (a) make incidental, supplemental, consequential or transitional provision; and
 - (b) make different provision for different purposes.
3. Unless paragraph 5 applies, a statutory instrument containing regulations made under this Regulation is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
4. No regulations to which paragraph 5 applies may be made unless—
 - (a) a draft of the instrument containing them has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House; or
 - (b) paragraph 6 applies.
5. This paragraph applies to any regulations made for the purposes set out in paragraphs 2 and 3 of Schedule 3 which contain a statement by the Treasury that, in their opinion, the effect (or one of the effects) of the proposed regulations would be that an activity which is not a regulated activity for the purposes of FSMA would become a regulated activity.
6. This paragraph applies if regulations to which paragraph 5 applies also contain a statement that the Treasury are of the opinion that, by reason of urgency, it is necessary to make the regulations without a draft being so laid and approved.
7. If paragraph 6 applies, the regulations—
 - (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made; and
 - (b) cease to have effect at the end of the relevant period unless before the end of that period the regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament (but without affecting anything done under the regulations or the power to make new regulations).

8. The “relevant period” is a period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the regulations are made.

9. In calculating the relevant period no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

Article 50A

Treasury Directions

1. Treasury directions under this Regulation may be varied or revoked.

2. A direction given by the Treasury must be laid before each House of Parliament and published in a way appearing to the Treasury to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

Article 50B

FCA Directions

1. A direction may only be given, amended or revoked by the FCA under Article 5, Article 9 or Article 14 (“an FCA direction”) with the approval of the Treasury.

2. An FCA direction—

- (a) may specify different countries in relation to different financial instruments;
- (b) must specify the date on which the direction comes into effect and the financial instruments or class of instruments to which it applies;
- (c) may be amended or revoked.

3. The Treasury may refuse to approve an FCA direction if it appears to the Treasury that—

- (a) the giving of that direction would prejudice any current or proposed negotiations for an international agreement between the United Kingdom and one or more other countries, international organisations or institutions; or
- (b) there are grounds under section 410 (international standards)(a) of FSMA to direct the FCA not to give that direction.

4. For the purposes of paragraph 3, “international organisations” includes the European Union.

5. The Treasury must notify the FCA in writing whether or not they approve an FCA direction within four weeks from the day on which that direction is submitted to the Treasury for approval (“the relevant period”).

6. If the Treasury do not give notice under paragraph 5 before the end of the relevant period the Treasury are deemed to have approved the direction.

7. Provision of a draft direction to the Treasury for consultation does not amount to submission of the direction for approval.

8. A copy of each FCA direction given under this Article must be laid before Parliament and published in a way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(a) Section 410 was amended by section 16 of the Financial Services Act 2012 (c.21) and S.I. 2017/1064.

Article 51

Transfer of MiFID functions

1. The Treasury may make regulations for the purposes specified in Part 1 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation.
2. The FCA may make technical standards for the purposes set out in Part 2 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation.
3. The FCA may make technical standards for the purposes set out in Part 3 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation applying to authorised persons who are not PRA-authorised persons.
4. The PRA may make technical standards for the purposes set out in Part 3 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation applying to authorised persons who are PRA-authorised persons.
5. For the purposes of this Article—
 - “authorised persons” has the meaning given in section 31(2) of FSMA;
 - “PRA-authorised person” has the meaning given in section 2B(5) of FSMA.”.

Final provisions

35.—(1) Omit Article 52.

(2) In Article 54—

(a) in paragraph 1—

(i) for “Member States” substitute “the United Kingdom”;

(ii) for “national regimes” substitute “FSMA”;

(iii) after “the Commission” insert “before exit day”;

(iv) after “Article 47” insert “or after the Treasury have made regulations under that Article after exit day”;

(b) omit paragraph 2.

(3) The omission of Article 54(2) does not affect any transitional period approved by a competent authority before exit day (and for these purposes, “competent authority” includes an authority designated by an EEA state in accordance with Article 67 of Directive 2014/65/EU).

(4) In Article 55, omit the fourth and fifth subparagraphs.

Professional clients

36. After Article 55, insert—

“SCHEDULE 1

Article 2

PROFESSIONAL CLIENTS FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS REGULATION

PART 1

Introduction

1. A professional client is a client who possesses the experience, knowledge and expertise to make its own investment decisions and properly assess the risks that it incurs.

2. In order to be considered to be a professional client, the client must comply with the criteria set out in Part 2 or Part 3 of this Schedule.

PART 2

Categories of client who are considered to be professional clients

3. The following are professional clients in relation to all investment services and activities and financial instruments for the purposes of the Regulation—

- (a) entities which are required to be authorised or regulated to operate in the financial markets (including all authorised entities carrying out the characteristic activities of the entities mentioned: entities which are authorised or regulated in the United Kingdom under FSMA, entities authorised by a Member State under a Directive, entities authorised or regulated by a Member State without reference to a Directive, and entities authorised or regulated by another third country) and comprising—
 - (i) credit institutions;
 - (ii) investment firms;
 - (iii) other authorised or regulated financial institutions;
 - (iv) insurance companies;
 - (v) collective investment schemes and management companies of such schemes;
 - (vi) pension funds and management companies of such funds;
 - (vii) commodity and commodity derivatives dealers;
 - (viii) locals;
 - (ix) other institutional investors;
- (b) large undertakings meeting two of the following size requirements on a company basis—
 - (i) the total on their balance sheet is 20 million euros or more;
 - (ii) their net turnover is 40 million euros or more;
 - (iii) they have own funds of 2 million euros or more;
- (c) national and regional governments, including public bodies that manage public debt at national or regional level, Central Banks, international and supranational institutions such as the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund, the European Central Bank, the European Investment Bank and other similar international organisations;
- (d) other institutional investors whose main activity is to invest in financial instruments, including entities dedicated to the securitisation of assets or other financing transactions.

4.—(1) An entity referred to in paragraph 3 may request non-professional treatment and investment firms may agree to provide a higher level of protection to that entity.

(2) Where the client of an investment firm is an undertaking referred to in paragraph 3, the investment firm must—

- (a) inform it prior to any provision of services that, on the basis of the information available to the investment firm, the client is considered to be a professional client, and will be treated as such unless the investment firm and the client agree otherwise;
- (b) inform the client that the client can request a variation of the terms of the agreement in order to secure a higher degree of protection.

(3) It is the responsibility of a client considered to be a professional client to ask for a higher level of protection if it thinks it is unable properly to assess or manage the risks involved.

(4) This higher level of protection will be provided when a client who is considered to be a professional client enters into a written agreement with the investment firm to the effect that it is not to be treated as a professional client for the purposes of the applicable conduct of business regime.

(5) The agreement must specify whether this applies to one or more particular services or transactions, or to one or more types of product or transaction.

PART 3

Clients who may be treated as professionals on request

5.—(1) Clients other than those mentioned in Part 2, including public sector bodies, local public authorities, municipalities and private individual investors, may also waive some or all of the protections afforded by the conduct of business rules.

(2) Investment firms may treat any of those clients as professional clients provided the relevant criteria and procedure mentioned below are fulfilled, but those clients are not to be presumed to possess market knowledge and experience comparable to that of the categories listed in Part 2.

(3) A waiver under point (1) is only valid if the investment firm has undertaken an adequate assessment of the expertise, experience and knowledge of the client (“the assessment”), and that assessment gives reasonable assurance, in light of the nature of the transactions or services envisaged, that the client is capable of making investment decisions and understanding the risks involved.

(4) The fitness test applied—

- (a) to managers and directors who have been approved for the purpose of section 59 of FSMA;
- (b) to managers and directors of entities which are—
 - (i) authorised persons within the meaning of section 31(2) of FSMA; or
 - (ii) recognised investment exchanges, recognised clearing houses or recognised central counterparties within the meaning of section 285 of FSMA, may be relied on for the purposes of the assessment.

(5) In the case of small entities, the person subject to the assessment must be the person authorised to carry out transactions on behalf of the entity.

(6) The assessment may not be relied on for the purposes of point (3) unless at least two of the following criteria are satisfied—

- (a) the client has carried out transactions, in significant size, on the relevant market at an average frequency of 10 per quarter over the previous four quarters;
- (b) the size of the client’s financial instrument portfolio, including cash deposits and financial instruments, exceeds 500,000 euros;
- (c) the client works or has worked in the financial sector for at least one year in a professional position, which requires knowledge of the transactions or services envisaged.

PART 4

Procedure

6.—(1) A client satisfying the criteria in Part 3 may only be treated as a professional client if the following procedure is followed—

- (a) the client must state in writing to the investment firm that it wishes to be treated as a professional client, either generally or in respect of a particular investment service or transaction, or type of transaction or product;
- (b) the investment firm must give the client a clear written warning of the protections and investor compensation rights it may lose;
- (c) the client must state in writing, in a separate document from the contract, that it is aware of the consequences of losing such protections.

(2) Before deciding to accept any request from a client to be treated as a professional client, investment firms must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the client in question meets the relevant requirements stated in Part 3.

(3) Points (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to a client who has already been categorised as a professional client under parameters and procedures similar to those referred to in this Schedule.

(4) Investment firms must implement appropriate written internal policies and procedures to categorise clients.

(5) A professional client is responsible for keeping the investment firm informed about any change which could affect its current categorisation as a professional client.

(6) Should the investment firm become aware however that the client no longer fulfils the conditions which made that client eligible to be treated as a professional client, the investment firm must take appropriate action.

Directive functions transferred to the Treasury

1. To clarify, for the purposes of section 327(4) of FSMA and of the Regulated Activities Order, when an activity is provided in an incidental manner^(a).
2. To specify—
 - (a) the derivative contracts referred to in paragraph 6 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order that have the characteristics of wholesale energy products that must be physically settled and energy derivative contracts referred to in that paragraph;

(a) The powers in this paragraph are transferred from Article 2(3) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (“Directive 2014/65/EU”).

- (b) the derivative contracts referred to in paragraph 7 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order that have the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments;
- (c) the derivative contracts referred to in paragraph 10 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order that have the characteristics of other derivative financial instruments, having regard to whether, inter alia, they are traded on a regulated market, an MTF or an OTF(a);
- (d) technical elements of the definitions laid down in Article 2, to adjust them to market developments, technological developments and experience of behaviour that is prohibited under Regulation (EU) 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council on market abuse (b).

3. To make further provision in relation to the criteria set out in section 186 of FSMA(c).

4. To specify the concrete organisational requirements equivalent to those set out in paragraphs 2 to 10 of Article 16 of Directive 2014/65/EU laid down in rules made by the competent authority under FSMA to be imposed on investment firms and on branches of third-country firms which have permission under Part 4A of FSMA to carry on regulated activities consisting of different investment services or activities and ancillary services or combinations thereof(d).

5. To define the steps that investment firms might reasonably be expected to take to identify, prevent, manage and disclose conflicts of interest when providing various investment and ancillary services and combinations thereof(e).

6. To establish appropriate criteria for determining the types of conflict of interest whose existence may damage the interests of the clients or potential clients of the investment firm(f).

7.—(1) To ensure that investment firms comply with the principles laid down in rules made by the competent authority under FSMA, equivalent to those in Article 24 of the Directive 2014/65/EU, when providing investment or ancillary services to their clients, including—

- (a) the conditions with which information must comply in order to be fair, clear and not misleading;
- (b) details about the content and format of information to clients in relation to client categorisation, investment firms and their services, financial instruments, costs and charges;
- (c) the criteria for the assessment of a range of financial instruments available on the market;
- (d) the criteria to assess compliance of firms receiving inducements with the obligation to act honestly, fairly and professionally in accordance with the best interests of the client(g).

(2) In formulating the requirements for information on financial instruments for the purposes of paragraph 7(1)(b), information on the structure of the product must be included, where applicable, taking into account any relevant standardized information required under retained EU law(h).

(3) Any rules made for the purposes set out in point (1) must take into account—

(a) The powers in paragraph 2(a) to (c) are transferred from Article 4(1)(2) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(b) The powers in paragraph 2(d) are transferred from Article 4(2) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(c) The powers in paragraph 3 are transferred from Article 13(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(d) The powers in paragraph 4 are transferred from Article 16(12) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(e) The powers in paragraph 5 are transferred from Article 23(4)(a) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(f) The powers in paragraph 6 are transferred from Article 23(4)(b) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(g) The powers in paragraph 7(1) are transferred from Article 24(13) (first subparagraph) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(h) The powers in paragraph 7(2) are transferred from Article 24(13) (second subparagraph) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

- (a) the nature of the service(s) offered or provided to the client or potential client, taking into account the type, object, size and frequency of the transactions;
- (b) the nature and range of products being offered or considered including different types of financial instruments;
- (c) the retail or professional nature of the client or potential clients or, where relevant, their classification as eligible counterparties(a).

8.—(1) To determine whether the legal and supervisory framework of a third country ensures that a regulated market authorised in that country complies with legally binding requirements which are equivalent to the requirements resulting from Regulation (EU) No 396/2014, from Title II of this Regulation, and from the law of the United Kingdom which was relied on immediately before exit day to implement Title III of Directive 2004/65/EU and Directive 2004/109/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market(b), and which are subject to effective supervision and enforcement in that third country.

(2) For the purposes of point (1), the legal and supervisory framework of a third country may be considered equivalent where the framework fulfils the following conditions—

- (a) the markets are subject to authorisation and to effective supervision and enforcement on an ongoing basis;
- (b) the markets have clear and transparent rules regarding the admission of securities to trading so that such securities are capable of being traded in a fair, orderly and efficient manner, and are freely negotiable;
- (c) security issuers are subject to periodic and ongoing information requirements ensuring a high level of investor protection; and
- (d) market transparency and integrity are ensured by the prevention of market abuse in the form of insider dealing and market manipulation(c).

9.—(1) To ensure that investment firms comply with the principles laid down in rules made by the competent authority under FSMA, equivalent to the principles set out in paragraphs 2 to 6 of Article 25 of Directive 2014/65/EU when providing investment or ancillary services to their clients, including providing for the—

- (a) information investment firms must obtain when assessing the suitability or appropriateness of the services and financial instruments for their clients;
- (b) criteria firms must use to assess non-complex financial instruments for the purposes of rule 10A.4.1(2)(f) of the Conduct of Business sourcebook;
- (c) content and the format of records and agreements for the provision of services to clients and of periodic reports to clients on the services provided.

(2) Regulations made for the purposes set out in point (1) must take into account—

- (a) the nature of the service offered or provided to the client or potential client, having regard to the type, object, size and frequency of the transactions;
- (b) the nature of the products being offered or considered, including different types of financial instruments;
- (c) the retail or professional nature of the client or potential clients or, where appropriate, their classification as eligible counterparties(d).

10. To make provision concerning—

(a) The powers in paragraph 7(3) are transferred from Article 24(14) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(b) OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p.38.
(c) The powers in paragraph 8 are transferred from Article 25.4 of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(d) The powers in paragraph 9 are transferred from Article 25(8) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

- (a) the criteria for determining the relative importance of the different factors that may be taken into account by an investment firm executing an order for a client for determining the best possible result for their client, taking into account the size and type of order and the retail or professional nature of the client;
- (b) factors that may be taken into account by an investment firm when reviewing its execution arrangements and the circumstances under which changes to such arrangements may be appropriate, and in particular, the factors for determining which venues enable investment firms to obtain on a consistent basis the best possible result for executing client orders;
- (c) the nature and extent of the information to be provided to clients on their execution policies(a).

11. To define—

- (a) the conditions and nature of the procedures and arrangements which result in the prompt, fair and expeditious execution of client orders and the situations in which or types of transaction for which investment firms may reasonably deviate from prompt execution so as to obtain more favourable terms for clients;
- (b) the different methods through which an investment firm can be deemed to have met its obligation to disclose not immediately executable client limit orders to the market(b).

12. To specify—

- (a) the procedures to be followed by eligible counterparties requesting treatment as clients under rule 3.7.1 of the Conduct of Business sourcebook;
- (b) the procedures to be followed by investment firms for obtaining the confirmation from prospective eligible counterparties referred to in rule 3.6.6 of the Conduct of Business sourcebook;
- (c) the pre-determined proportionate requirements, including quantitative thresholds that would allow an undertaking to be considered to be an eligible counterparty for the purposes of rule 3.6.4A of the Conduct of Business sourcebook(c).

13. To determine circumstances that trigger an information requirement, as referred to in—

- (a) rule 5.6.1 of the Market Conduct sourcebook(d); or
- (b) rule 3.21.1 or 3.25.1 of the Recognised Investment Exchanges sourcebook(e).

14. To specify further the requirements laid down in rule 5.10.2 of the Market Conduct sourcebook, taking into account the need for the requirements to maintain high levels of investor protection to promote investor confidence in those markets while minimising the administrative burdens for issuers on the market and that de-registrations do not occur nor must registrations be refused as a result of a merely temporary failure to meet the conditions set out in paragraph (1) of that rule(f).

15. To list situations constituting significant damage to investors' interests and the orderly functioning of the market for the purposes of sections 313CA and 313CB of FSMA(g), and paragraph 7E in the Schedule to the Recognition Requirements Regulations(h).

(a) The powers in paragraph 10 are transferred from Article 27(9) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(b) The powers in paragraph 11 are transferred from Article 28(3) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(c) The powers in paragraph 12 are transferred from Article 30(5) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(d) The powers in paragraph 13(a) are transferred from Article 31(4) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(e) The powers in paragraph 13(b) are transferred from Article 54(4) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(f) The powers in paragraph 14 are transferred from Article 33(8) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(g) Sections 313CA and 313CB were inserted by S.I. 2017/701.
(h) Paragraph 7E was inserted by S.I. 2006/3386 and amended by S.I. 2017/701. The powers in paragraph 15 are transferred from Articles 32(4) and 52(4) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

16. To specify the thresholds referred to in paragraph 7BB(2)(a) of the Recognition Requirements Regulations(a), having regard to the total number of open positions and their size and the total number of persons holding a position(b).

17. To clarify what constitutes a reasonable commercial basis—

(a) to make information public as referred to in regulation 14 of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017(c);

(b) to provide access to data streams as referred to in regulation 15 of those Regulations(d).

18. To establish the criteria under which the operations of a trading venue in a host Member State could be considered to be of substantial importance for the functioning of the securities markets and the protection of the investors in that host Member State(e).

PART 2

Powers to make technical standards transferred to the FCA

19.—(1) To specify the criteria for establishing when an activity is to be considered to be ancillary to the main business of a firm at group level for the purposes of paragraph 1(l) of Schedule 3 to the Regulated Activities Order.

(2) Any criteria specified under point (1) must take into account the following elements—

(a) the need for ancillary activities to constitute a minority of activities at a group level;

(b) the size of their trading activity compared to the overall market trading activity in that asset class.

(3) In determining the extent to which ancillary activities constitute a minority of activities at a group level the competent authority may determine that the capital employed for carrying out the ancillary activity relative to the capital employed for carrying out the main business is to be considered (though this factor is not sufficient to demonstrate that the activity is ancillary to the main business of the group).

(4) The activities referred to in this paragraph must be considered at a group level.

(5) No account is to be taken, for the purposes of points (2) and (3), of—

(a) intra-group transactions as referred to in Article 3 of Regulation (EU) 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council on OTC derivatives, central counterparties and trade depositories that serve group-wide liquidity or risk management purposes;

(b) transactions in derivatives which are objectively measurable in reducing risks directly relating to the commercial activity or treasury financing activity;

(c) transactions in commodity derivatives and emission allowances entered into to fulfil obligations to provide liquidity on a trading venue, where such obligations are required by regulatory authorities in accordance with domestic law, or by trading venues(f).

20. To determine—

(a) the specific content, the format and the periodicity of data relating to the quality of execution to be published in accordance with paragraph 4C of the Schedule to the Recognition Requirement Regulations(g), taking into account the type of execution venue and the type of financial instrument concerned;

(a) Paragraph 7BB was inserted by S.I.2017/701.

(b) The powers in paragraph 16 are transferred from Articles 58(6) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(c) The powers in paragraph 17(a) are transferred from Article 64(7) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(d) The powers in paragraph 17(b) are transferred from Article 65(7) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(e) The powers in paragraph 18 are transferred from Article 79(8) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(f) The powers in paragraph 19 are transferred from Article 2(4) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(g) Paragraph 4C was inserted by S.I. 2017/701.

- (b) the content and the format of information to be published by investment firms in accordance with rule 11.2A.39 of the Conduct of Business sourcebook(a).

21. To specify further the cases in which the connection between a derivative as referred to in paragraphs 4 to 10 of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order relating to or referenced to a financial instrument suspended or removed from trading and the original financial instrument implies that the derivative is also to be suspended or removed from trading, in order to achieve the objective of the suspension or removal of the underlying financial instrument(b).

22. To determine the format and timing of communications and publications by an investment firm or market operator of an MTF or an OTF relating to its decisions to suspend or remove from trading a financial instrument and any related derivative(c).

23. To specify further—

- (a) the requirements to ensure trading systems of regulated markets are resilient and have adequate capacity;
- (b) the ratio referred to in rule 5.3A.2(7) and 5A.5.2(7) of the Market Conduct sourcebook, taking into account factors such as the value of unexecuted orders in relation to the value of executed transactions;
- (c) the controls concerning direct electronic access in such a way as to ensure that the controls applied to sponsored access are at least equivalent to those applied to direct market access;
- (d) the requirements to ensure that co-location services and fee structures are fair and non-discriminatory and that fee structures do not create incentives for disorderly trading conditions or market abuse;
- (e) the determination of where a regulated market is material in terms of liquidity in that financial instrument;
- (f) the requirements to ensure that market making schemes are fair and non-discriminatory and to establish minimum market making obligations that regulated markets must provide for when designing a market making scheme and the conditions under which the requirement to have in place a market making scheme is not appropriate, taking into account the nature and scale of the trading on that regulated market, including whether the regulated market allows for or enables algorithmic trading to take place through its systems;
- (g) the requirements to ensure appropriate testing of algorithms so as to ensure that algorithmic trading systems including high-frequency algorithmic trading systems cannot create or contribute to disorderly trading conditions on the market(d).

24. To specify minimum tick sizes or tick size regimes for specific shares, depositary receipts, exchange-traded funds, certificates, and other similar financial instruments where necessary to ensure the orderly functioning of markets, in accordance with the factors in paragraph 3G of the Schedule to the Recognition Requirements Regulations(e) and the price, spreads and depth of liquidity of the financial instruments(f).

25. To specify minimum tick sizes or tick size regimes for specific financial instruments other than those referred to in paragraph 24 where necessary to ensure the orderly functioning of markets, in accordance with the factors in paragraph 3G of the Schedule to

(a) The powers in paragraph 20 are transferred from Article 27(10) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(b) The powers in paragraph 21 are transferred from Article 32(2) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(c) The powers in paragraph 22 are transferred from Article 32(3) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(d) The powers in paragraph 23 are transferred from Article 48(12) of Directive 2014/65/EU.
(e) Paragraph 3G was inserted by S.I. 2017/701.
(f) The powers in paragraph 24 are transferred from Article 49(3) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

the Recognition Requirements Regulations and the price, spreads and depth of liquidity of the financial instruments(a).

26. To specify the level of accuracy to which clocks are to be synchronised in accordance with international standards(b).

27. To specify the characteristics of different classes of financial instruments which must be taken into account by the regulated market when it assesses whether a financial instrument is issued in a manner consistent with the conditions laid down in the paragraphs 7A(2) and (3)(a), and 9ZB(1)(a) and (b) of the Schedule to the Recognition Requirements Regulations(c) for admission to trading on the different market segments which it operates(d).

28. To clarify the arrangements that a regulated market—

- (a) is required to implement so as to be considered to have fulfilled its obligation to verify that the issuer of a transferable security complies with its obligations under the law of England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland in respect of initial, ongoing or ad hoc disclosure obligations(e);
- (b) has to establish pursuant to paragraph 3 in order to facilitate its members or participants in obtaining access to information which has been made public under the conditions established by the law of England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland(f).

29. To specify further the cases in which the connection between a derivative relating or referenced to a financial instrument suspended or removed from trading and the original financial instrument implies that the derivative is also to be suspended or removed from trading, in order to achieve the objective of the suspension or removal of the underlying financial instrument(g).

30. To specify further the format and the timing of the publications market operators are required to make in relation to their decisions on the suspension or removal of financial, instruments and any related derivative from trading(h).

31.—(1) To determine the methodology for calculation which will be applied in establishing the spot month position limits and other months' position limits for physically settled and cash settled commodity derivatives based on the characteristics of the relevant derivative.

(2) The methodology for calculation must take into account the following factors—

- (a) the maturity of the commodity derivative contracts;
- (b) the deliverable supply in the underlying commodity;
- (c) the overall open interest in that contract and the overall open interest in other financial instruments with the same underlying commodity;
- (d) the volatility of the relevant markets, including substitute derivatives and the underlying commodity markets;
- (e) the number and size of the market participants;
- (f) the characteristics of the underlying commodity market, including patterns of production, consumption and transportation to market;

(a) The powers in paragraph 25 are transferred from Article 49(4) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(b) The powers in paragraph 26 are transferred from Article 50(2) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(c) Paragraph 7A was inserted by S.I. 2006/3386 and amended by S.I. 2017/701. Paragraph 9ZB was inserted by S.I. 2017/701.

(d) The powers in paragraph 27 are transferred from Article 51(6)(a) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(e) The powers in paragraph 28(a) are transferred from Article 51(6)(b) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(f) The powers in paragraph 28(b) are transferred from Article 51(6)(c) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(g) The powers in paragraph 29 are transferred from Article 52(2) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(h) The powers in paragraph 30 are transferred from Article 52(3) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(g) the development of new contracts.

(3) The appropriate regulator must take into account experience regarding the position limits of investment firms or market operators operating a trading venue and of other jurisdictions(a).

32. To determine—

- (a) the criteria and methods for determining whether a position qualifies as reducing risks directly relating to commercial activities for the purpose of position limits applying to commodity derivatives;
- (b) the methods to determine when positions of a person are to be aggregated within a group;
- (c) the criteria for determining whether a contract is an economically equivalent over-the-counter (OTC) contract to that traded on a trading venue, referred to in regulation 16(1) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017(b), in a way that facilitates the reporting of positions taken in equivalent OTC contracts to the FCA;
- (d) the methodology for aggregating and netting OTC and on-venue commodity derivatives positions to establish the net position for purposes of assessing compliance with the limits. Such methodologies must establish criteria to determine which positions may be netted against one another and must not facilitate the build-up of positions in a manner inconsistent with the objectives set out in regulation 16(2) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017;
- (e) the procedure setting out how persons may apply for the exemption under regulation 17 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017 and how the FCA will approve such applications(c).

33. To determine the format of the weekly reports referred to in paragraph 7BB of the Schedule to the Recognition Requirement Regulations and direction 10.4.5 of the Market Conduct sourcebook and of the breakdowns in paragraph 7BB(2)(b) of that Schedule(d) and paragraph (2) of that direction.

34. To determine—

- (a) the information to be provided to the FCA in relation to an application for authorisation under regulation 7 of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017, including the programme of operations(e);
- (b) to determine standard forms, templates and procedures for the provision of information referred to in regulation 7 of those Regulations(f).

35. To determine common formats, data standards and technical arrangements facilitating the consolidation of information referred to in regulation 14(1) of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017(g).

36. To specify—

- (a) the means by which an APA (within the meaning of regulation 2(1) of the Data Reporting Services 2017) may comply with the information obligation referred to in regulation 14 of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017;
- (b) the content of the information published under regulation 14 of those Regulations, including the information referred to in regulation 14(4) in such a way as to enable the publication of information required under regulations 14;

(a) The powers in paragraph 31 are transferred from Article 57(3) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(b) S.I. 2017/701.

(c) The powers in paragraph 32 are transferred from Article 57(12) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(d) The powers in paragraph 33 are transferred from Article 58(5) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(e) The powers in paragraph 34(a) are transferred from Article 61(4)(a) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(f) The powers in paragraph 34(b) are transferred from Article 61(5) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(g) The powers in paragraph 35 are transferred from Article 64(6) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

- (c) the concrete organisational requirements laid down in regulation 14(5) of those Regulations(a).

37. To determine data standards and formats for the information to be published in accordance with Articles 6, 10, 20 and 21 of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council on markets in financial instruments, including financial instrument identifier, price, quantity, time, price notation, venue identifier and indicators for specific conditions the transactions were subject to as well as technical arrangements promoting an efficient and consistent dissemination of information in a way ensuring for it to be easily accessible and utilisable for market participants as referred to in regulation 15(3) and (7) of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017, including identifying additional services the CTP (within the meaning of regulation 2(1) of the Data Reporting Services 2017) could perform which increase the efficiency of the market(b).

38. To specify—

- (a) the means by which the CTP may comply with the information obligation referred to in regulation 15(1) and (5) of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017;
- (b) the content of the information published under regulation 15 of those Regulations;
- (c) the financial instruments data of which must be provided in the data stream and for non-equity instruments the trading venues and APAs which need to be included;
- (d) other means to ensure that the data published by different CTPs is consistent and allows for comprehensive mapping and cross-referencing against similar data from other sources, and is capable of being aggregated at the level of the United Kingdom;
- (e) the concrete organisational requirements laid down in regulation 15(10) and (11) of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017(c).

39. To specify—

- (a) the means by which the ARM (within the meaning of regulation 2(1) of the Data Reporting Services 2017) may comply with the information obligation referred to in regulation 16(1) of the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017; and
- (b) the concrete organisational requirements laid down in regulation 16(3) and (4) of those Regulations(d).

PART 3

Powers to make technical standards transferred to the PRA and the FCA

40. To specify—

- (a) the information to be provided to the competent authorities by an investment firm applying for authorisation under FSMA, including information in relation to the firm's programme of operations;
- (b) the requirements applicable to the management of investment firms under rules 4.2.2R and 4.2.6R of the Senior Management, Systems and Controls sourcebook, or rules 3.1 and 3.2 of the General Organisational Requirements for investment firms in the PRA rulebook, as applicable;
- (c) the information required for notifications under direction 10A.13.3D and rule 10A.13.10R of the Supervision Manual in the FCA Handbook or rule 2.2 of the Senior Managers Regime – Applications and Notifications Part of the PRA rulebook;

(a) The powers in paragraph 36 are transferred from Article 64(8) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(b) The powers in paragraph 37 are transferred from Article 65(6) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(c) The powers in paragraph 38 are transferred from Article 65(8) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(d) The powers in paragraph 39 are transferred from Article 66(5) of Directive 2014/65/EU.

(d) the requirements applicable to shareholders and members with qualifying holdings, as well as obstacles which may prevent effective exercise of the supervisory function of the competent authority(a).

41. To develop standard forms, templates and procedures for the notification or provision of information provided for under paragraph 40(b).

42. To establish an exhaustive list of information to be included by persons who have decided to acquire or increase control over a UK authorised person in the notification required under section 178 of FSMA(c).

43. To determine standard forms, templates and procedures for the modalities of the consultation process between the relevant competent authorities as referred to in sections 187A to 187C of FSMA(d).

44. To specify the following—

(a) the details of organisational requirements laid down in regulations 30, 32, 33 and 46 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017, sections 7A.3 and 7A.4 of the Market Conduct sourcebook or the Algorithmic Trading Part of the PRA rulebook, as applicable, on investment firms providing different investment services or activities and ancillary services or combinations thereof, whereby the specifications in relation to the organisational requirements laid down in regulations 32 and 33 of those Regulations must set out specific requirements for direct market access and for sponsored access in such a way as to ensure that the controls applied to sponsored access are at least equivalent to those applied to direct market access;

(b) the circumstances in which an investment firm would be obliged to enter into the market making agreement referred to in regulation 30(10)(b) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017 and the content of such agreements, including the proportion of the trading venue's trading hours laid down in regulation 30(10)(a) of those Regulations;

(c) the situations constituting exceptional circumstances referred to in regulation 30(10) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017, including circumstances of extreme volatility, political and macroeconomic issues, system and operational matters, and circumstances which contradict the investment firm's ability to maintain prudent risk management practices as laid down in regulation 30(3) of those Regulations;

(d) the content and format of the approved form referred to in regulation 30(9) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017 and the length of time for which such records must be kept by the investment firm(e).”.

CHAPTER 2

Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/565

Transitional period: data for calculations

1. During the transitional period, within the meaning of Article 5(3A) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014, for the purposes of determining whether the criteria set out in Articles 12 to 16 are satisfied, firms must use data published by the FCA for the financial instrument in question to calculate—

- (a) whether there is a liquid market for that financial instrument;
- (b) the total number of transactions in that financial instrument executed in the relevant area on any trading venue or OTC;
- (c) the total turnover for that financial instrument executed in the relevant area on a trading venue or OTC.

2. Where the FCA has not published relevant data for the financial instrument in question, firms must use the most recent data published before exit day by the European Securities and Markets Authority in relation to that financial instrument to calculate the questions set out in paragraph 1.

3. If neither the data described in paragraph 1 nor the data described in paragraph 2 is available in relation to the financial instrument in question, an investment firm is not a systematic internaliser within the definition given in Article 2(1)(12) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 unless it has chosen to opt in to the systematic internaliser regime.”.

 - (iv) in the words after point (d), for “Competent authorities” substitute “The FCA”;
- (b) after paragraph 1, insert—

“1A. Subject to paragraph 1B, during the transitional period (within the meaning of Article 5(3A) of Regulation 600/2014/EU), paragraph 1 does not apply except as follows—

- (a) the FCA must make and publish the assessment required by—
 - (i) point (a) of paragraph 1, where a share, depository certificate, exchange traded fund or a certificate (“a relevant instrument”) is traded on a UK trading venue for the first time after exit day;
 - (ii) point (d) of paragraph 1;
- (b) the FCA may make (and if it does so must publish) the assessments required by point (b) or (c) of paragraph 1 if it has the data it needs to do so;
- (c) subject to point (f), if no assessment has been carried out by the FCA under this paragraph, where any obligation in retained EU law relating to markets in financial instruments requires the determination of whether a particular relevant instrument has a liquid market, the most recent assessment made before exit day by a competent authority under this Article (as it was in force in the European Union before exit day) is to apply;
- (d) if no assessment had been made by the FCA under this paragraph or by any competent authority before exit day in relation to a relevant instrument, that instrument is to be deemed not to have a liquid market for the purposes of article 2(1)(17)(b) of Regulation 600/2014/EU, unless an assessment has been made by the FCA under paragraph 1;
- (e) the FCA may disregard the most recent assessment made in relation to a relevant instrument before exit day and direct that the instrument concerned is to be treated as not having a liquid market if—
 - (i) an assessment would be required under point (b) or point (c) of paragraph 1 but the FCA does not have the data to carry out such an assessment; and
 - (ii) it appears to the FCA that—
 - (aa) the liquidity of the financial instrument in UK trading venues has reduced since the relevant instrument was last assessed, and
 - (bb) the extent of the reduction in liquidity is so material that continuing to treat the relevant instrument as having a liquid market would have an adverse effect on price formation in that instrument;
- (f) a direction given by the FCA under point (e) must be published as soon as possible.

1B. The FCA must make at least one assessment required by paragraph 1 no later than the date six weeks before the end of the transitional period in relation to every relevant instrument which is traded on a UK trading venue.

1C. If any assessment has been made and published by the FCA in accordance with paragraph 1A (including an assessment given by direction under point (e)) during the transitional period that assessment is to be used by the FCA, market operators and investment firms (including investment firms operating a trading venue)—

- (a) from the date on which the assessment is published, in the case of an assessment in accordance with point (a)(ii) of paragraph 1A;
 - (b) from the date six weeks after the date on which that assessment was published in all other cases.”;
- (c) in paragraph 2, for “competent authorities” both times it occurs, substitute “the FCA”;

- (d) in paragraph 3—
 - (i) in the opening words, for “competent authorities” substitute “the FCA”;
 - (ii) in point (b)(iii) for “competent authority” substitute “FCA”;
- (e) after paragraph 3, insert—
 - “4. For the purposes of this Article, the “relevant area” consists of the United Kingdom and those countries or regions specified by the FCA by direction.
 - 5. The FCA may only give a direction under paragraph 4 specifying that a country or region is within the relevant area in relation to one or more financial instruments for the purposes of this Article if the FCA is able to obtain sufficient reliable trading data to enable it to assess the volume of trading in the financial instruments concerned in that country or region.
 - 6. Article 50B of Regulation 600/2014/EU (“the Regulation”) applies to a direction given by the FCA for the purposes of this Article as it applies to a direction given by the FCA for the purposes of Article 5, 9 or 14 of the Regulation.”.

Data publication obligations for systematic internalisers

- 60. In Article 14(1)—
 - (a) in point (a), for “Article 48(5) of Directive 2014/65/EU” substitute “paragraph 3B of the Schedule to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges, Clearing Houses and Central Securities Depositories) Regulations 2001(a) or rules 5.3A.5 to 5.3A.8 or 5A.5.5 to 5A.5.8 of the Market Conduct sourcebook”;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers in section 8 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union (and in particular, the deficiencies under paragraphs (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) of section 8(2)).

They amend the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017, the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017. They also amend Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 on markets in financial instruments and Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/565/EU supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards organisational requirements and operating conditions for investment firms and defined terms; and Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/567/EU supplementing Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to definitions, transparency, portfolio compression and supervisory measures on product intervention and positions.

These Regulations refer to the Rulebook made by the Prudential Regulation Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, and sourcebooks made by the Financial Conduct Authority under that Act. The Rulebook is available on <http://www.prarulebook.co.uk> and copies of the rules referred to can be obtained from the Prudential Regulation Authority, 20 Moorgate, London EC2R 6DA, where it is also available for inspection. Sourcebooks made by the Financial Conduct Authority are available on <https://www.handbook.fca.org.uk/handbook> and copies of the rules referred to can be obtained from the Financial Conduct Authority, 12 Endeavour Square, London E20 1JN, where it is also available for inspection.

An impact assessment of the effect that this instrument, and other instruments made by HM Treasury under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 at or about the same time, will have on the costs of business, the voluntary sector and the public sector is available from HM Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ and is published alongside this instrument at www.legislation.gov.uk.
