62. In relation to any notice given by the Regulator to a person which, by virtue of this Chapter, is to be treated as a decision notice given under the 2000 Act—

- (a) it is immaterial that the notice does not meet the requirements specified in subsection (1)(b) to (e) of section 388 of that Act (decision notices); and
- (b) that section is to be read as if—

66.—(1) This article applies where—

(2) The FCA may continue to refer the complaint or question which is the substance of the relevant reference, and is for that purpose substituted for the Regulator as a party to the reference.

CHAPTER 4

Complaints: the Legal Ombudsman and the Financial Ombudsman Service

Interpretation

68. In this Chapter—

“compulsory jurisdiction” has the same meaning as it has in the 2000 Act(b);

“former scheme” means the scheme operated by the Office for Legal Complaints under Part 6 of the 2007 Act (legal complaints)(c);

(a) Section 133 was substituted by S.I. 2010/22 and amended by the Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), section 23, the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (c. 33), section 4(2), the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22), section 17(5) and S.I. 2013/1388, 2014/3329, 2016/680 and 2017/1064.

(b) For the meaning of “compulsory jurisdiction” see the 2000 Act, section 226(8).

(c) Section 115 of the 2007 Act provides that the scheme is to be operated under a name (which must include the word “ombudsman”) chosen by the Office for Legal Complaints. The chosen name is “The Legal Ombudsman Scheme”. Section 161 of the 2007 Act extends Part 6 of the 2007 Act to claims management services, and is repealed by this Order subject to saving provisions.

“new scheme” means the scheme for which provision is made in Part 16 of the 2000 Act (the ombudsman scheme);

“relevant complaint” means a relevant existing complaint or a relevant new complaint;

“relevant existing complaint” means a complaint of a kind specified in article 69(1);

“relevant new complaint” means a complaint of a kind specified in article 70(1); and “scheme operator” has the same meaning as it has in Part 16 of the 2000 Act(a).

Complaints made before 1st April 2019 not concluded by that date

69.—(1) This article applies to a complaint which—

- (a) was referred under the former scheme before 1st April 2019 by a person who was at that time entitled under the terms of the former scheme to refer the complaint;
- (b) relates to the provision of claims management services (within the meaning given in section 4(2) of the 2006 Act); and
- (c) was not concluded on 1st April 2019.

(2) Subject to articles 71 and 72, a relevant existing complaint is to be dealt with as if it had been referred under the new scheme in compliance with rules made by the FCA under paragraph 13 of Schedule 17(b) to the 2000 Act.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1), except where paragraph (5) applies, a complaint is to be treated as concluded on 1st April 2019 where, before that date—

- (a) the complainant notified the ombudsman of the complainant’s rejection of a determination under section 137 of the 2007 Act (determination of complaints);
- (b) the complainant accepted a determination under that section, and any direction contained in the determination was fully complied with;
- (c) the complaint was resolved otherwise than by a determination under that section, and any direction or agreement forming part of the resolution was fully complied with;
- (d) the complaint was dismissed in accordance with provision made in scheme rules under section 133(3)(a) of the 2007 Act; or
- (e) the complaint was referred with the consent of the complainant to another body in accordance with provision made in scheme rules under section 133(3)(b) of the 2007 Act.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b) the cases in which a direction contained in the determination of a complaint was fully complied with include a case where, in relation to such a direction, the court has not yet heard an application under section 141(2) or (3) of the 2007 Act (enforcement by complainant of directions under section 137 of that Act).

(5) This paragraph applies where, in relation to a complaint referred under the former scheme—

- (a) an ombudsman did not decide, before 1st April 2019, whether the respondent would be required to pay a charge under rules made in compliance with section 136(1) of the 2007 Act; or
- (b) an ombudsman did, before that date, require the respondent to pay such a charge and the charge has not been paid.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (2) it is immaterial that the condition set out in section 226(2)(c) of the 2000 Act (compulsory jurisdiction) is not met in relation to the complaint.

Complaints made on or after 1st April 2019 about acts or omissions before that date

70.—(1) This article applies to a complaint—

(a) For the meaning of “scheme operator” see the 2000 Act, section 225(2).

(b) Paragraph 13 of Schedule 17 was amended by the Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), section 39 and by S.I. 2009/209, 2011/99, 2015/542, and 2017/752.

- (a) about an act or omission which occurred before 1st April 2019 in relation to the provision of claims management services (within the meaning given in section 4(2) of the 2006 Act);
 - (b) which had not, before that date, been referred under the former scheme by a person who was entitled under the terms of the former scheme to refer the complaint; and
 - (c) in relation to which the conditions set out in paragraph (2) are met.
- (2) The conditions are that—
- (a) in relation to the compulsory jurisdiction, the complainant falls within a class of person specified as eligible in the compulsory jurisdiction rules (within the meaning given by section 226(3) of the 2000 Act); and
 - (b) the complainant wishes to have the complaint dealt with under the new scheme.
- (3) Where the condition set out in paragraph (2)(a) is not met in relation to a complaint, an ombudsman may nonetheless treat the complaint as if it does meet that condition if the complainant would have been entitled, immediately before 1st April 2019, to refer the complaint under the former scheme.
- (4) A relevant new complaint—
- (a) may be referred under the new scheme; and
 - (b) upon referral, subject to articles 71 and 73, is to be dealt with in the same way as any other complaint referred under the new scheme.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (4), it is immaterial that the conditions set out in section 226(2)(b) and (c) of the 2000 Act are not met in relation to the complaint.

Procedure for dealing with relevant complaints

71.—(1) In this article “scheme rules” means rules made under paragraph 14(1) of Schedule 17 to the 2000 Act (the scheme operator’s rules).

(2) A relevant existing complaint is to be treated as if it had been referred in accordance with any applicable procedure for reference of complaints set out in scheme rules.

(3) Relevant complaints are to be dealt with in accordance with the procedure for the investigation, consideration and determination of complaints set out in scheme rules, and for those purposes scheme rules apply with the modifications in paragraphs (4) to (7).

(4) In determining a relevant existing complaint, an ombudsman is to have no regard to rules made under paragraph 14(2)(a) of Schedule 17 to the 2000 Act (rules specifying matters to be taken into account in determining whether an act or omission was fair and reasonable).

(5) Where an ombudsman is deciding whether to dismiss a complaint without a consideration of its merits in accordance with rules made under paragraph 14(2)(b) and (3) of Schedule 17 to the 2000 Act (“relevant rules”)—

- (a) paragraph (6) applies if the complaint is a relevant existing complaint; and
- (b) paragraphs (6) and (7) apply if the complaint is a relevant new complaint.

(6) An ombudsman must consider whether the complaint would have been dismissed under the rules of the former scheme, if the decision were being made immediately before 1st April 2019, and if the ombudsman considers that the complaint—

- (a) would have been dismissed under the rules of the former scheme; or
 - (b) should be dismissed under the relevant rules,
- the ombudsman may dismiss the complaint.

(7) The corresponding rules of the former scheme are to be read as if they were subject to paragraph 13 of Schedule 3 to the Alternative Dispute Resolution for Consumer Disputes

(Competent Authorities and Information) Regulations 2015(a) (grounds to refuse to deal with a dispute).

- (8) Paragraph (9) applies to a relevant existing complaint where—
- (a) the complainant accepted a determination under section 137 of the 2007 Act before 1st April 2019; and
 - (b) a direction contained in that determination had not been complied with on or before that date.
- (9) A direction made under—
- (a) section 137(2)(c) of the 2007 Act is to be treated as a money award (within the meaning given by section 229(2)(a) of the 2000 Act) for the purposes of section 229(8)(b) and paragraph 16 of Schedule 17 to the 2000 Act; and
 - (b) any other sub-paragraph of section 137(2) of the 2007 Act is to be treated as a direction under section 229(2)(b) of the 2000 Act for the purposes of section 229(9) and (10) of the 2000 Act.

Determination of relevant existing complaints

72.—(1) In this article, except for the references in paragraphs (2) and (4) to sections of the 2007 Act, a reference to a numbered section is a reference to the section so numbered in the 2000 Act.

(2) Where a relevant existing complaint is to be determined under the new scheme, the complaint must, so far as practicable, be determined by reference to such criteria as would have applied to the determination of the complaint under the former scheme immediately before 1st April 2019 by virtue of scheme rules under section 133 of the 2007 Act.

(3) Sections 228(b) (determination under the compulsory jurisdiction) and 230A (reports of determinations) apply in relation to the determination of a relevant existing complaint with the following modifications—

- (a) section 228 is to be read as if subsection (2) were omitted; and
- (b) section 230A(1)(c) is to be read as if the reference to any determination made under Part 16 included the determination of the relevant existing complaint.

(4) The determination of a relevant existing complaint may contain any one or more of the directions set out in subsection (2) of section 137 of the 2007 Act, and for those purposes—

- (a) a direction under subsection (2)(c) of that section, is to be treated as a money award (within the meaning given by section 229(2)(a)(d)) for the purposes of paragraph 16 of Schedule 17 to the 2000 Act; and
- (b) any other direction is to be treated as a direction under section 229(2)(b) for the purposes of section 229(9) and (10).

(5) An ombudsman may, on determining a relevant existing complaint, award costs having regard to provision for the award of costs made in rules of the former scheme, and for those purposes—

- (a) it does not matter whether the award is attributable to an act or omission which occurs before 1st April 2019 or to an act or omission which occurs on or after that date; and
- (b) section 230(7) of, and paragraph 16 of Schedule 17 to, the 2000 Act apply in relation to the award as they apply in relation to an award of costs made in accordance with rules under section 230(1).

(a) S.I. 2015/542.

(b) Section 228 was amended by the Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), section 39 and S.I. 2013/1881.

(c) Section 230A was inserted by the Financial Services Act 2012, section 39.

(d) Paragraph 16 of Schedule 17 was amended by the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22), section 17(5) and the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15), section 62(3).

Determination of relevant new complaints

73.—(1) In this article, except for the references in paragraph (5) to section 137 of the 2007 Act, a reference to a numbered section is a reference to the section so numbered in the 2000 Act.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (5), a relevant new complaint is to be determined by reference to the criteria applicable to the determination of any other complaint referred under the new scheme.

(3) The provisions specified in paragraph (4) apply in relation to a relevant new complaint with the modifications in paragraph (5).

(4) Paragraph (5) applies for the purposes of determining, in relation to a relevant new complaint—

- (a) under section 228(2), what is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case;
- (b) under section 229(2)(a), what amount, if any, constitutes fair compensation for loss or damage suffered by the complainant; and
- (c) under section 229(2)(b), what steps would be just and appropriate in any direction under that section.

(5) An ombudsman may take into account—

- (a) what an ombudsman determining the complaint under the former scheme might reasonably have considered fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case;
- (b) what amount an ombudsman determining the complaint under the former scheme might reasonably have directed the respondent to pay under section 137(2)(c) of the 2007 Act; and
- (c) what other steps an ombudsman determining the complaint under the former scheme might reasonably have directed the respondent to take under section 137(2) of the 2007 Act.

Funding and charges

74.—(1) Paragraphs (2) and (3) apply to a complaint referred under the former scheme which is a relevant existing complaint by virtue only of article 69(5)(a).

(2) The ombudsman who is dealing with the complaint must decide under rules made in compliance with section 136(1) of the 2007 Act whether the respondent is to be required to pay a charge under those rules.

(3) Where the respondent is required to pay a charge under those rules, the charge is payable to the scheme operator.

(4) Paragraph (5) applies to a complaint referred under the former scheme which is a relevant existing complaint by virtue only of article 69(5)(b).

(5) The charge which the respondent was required to pay under rules made in compliance with section 136(1) of the 2007 Act is payable to the scheme operator.

Surplus fees

75.—(1) In this article, “relevant OLC expenditure”(a) has the meaning given in section 174A of the 2007 Act(b).

(2) Paragraph (3) applies to any periodic fees charged by the Lord Chancellor to 2006 Act authorised persons under section 174A of the 2007 Act for the purposes of meeting any costs incurred by the Lord Chancellor in respect of relevant OLC expenditure.

(a) The OLC is the Office for Legal Complaints established by section 114 of the Legal Services Act 2007 (c. 29).

(b) Section 174A was inserted by the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (c. 33), section 140(4) and (5) and is repealed by this Order.

(3) Where, immediately before 1st April 2019, the periodic fees held by the Lord Chancellor exceeded the Lord Chancellor's costs incurred in respect of relevant OLC expenditure, those fees may be paid—

- (a) to the OLC for the purpose of funding applications under section 141(2) or (3) of the 2007 Act falling within article 69(4); or

Record-keeping and reporting requirements relating to relevant complaints

78. The FCA may make rules applying to 2000 Act authorised persons with respect to the keeping of records and the making of reports in relation to relevant complaints.

Information and reports

79.—(1) Sections 230A, 231, 232 and 232A of the 2000 Act apply in relation to a relevant complaint as they apply in relation to a complaint which relates to an act or omission of a person in carrying on an activity to which compulsory jurisdiction rules (within the meaning given by section 226(3) of the 2000 Act) apply.

(2) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the ombudsman who was dealing with a relevant complaint under the former scheme certified to the court under section 149(2) of the 2007 Act a failure to comply with a requirement imposed under section 147(1) of that Act; and

(3) The conditions are that—

 - (bb) was determined before 1st April 2019 by way of a remittal of the refusal decision to the Regulator under section 13(3)(e) of the 2006 Act but a further decision by the Regulator in relation to the remittal has not been taken; or
 - (ii) where, before 1st April 2019, P did not submit such notice of appeal, the period within which an appeal may be made has not ended on that date;
- (b) in the case of a notice under regulation 47 of the 2006 Regulations, the cancellation had effect before 1st April 2019, and—
 - (i) where, before 1st April 2019, P submitted notice of an appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under section 13 of the 2006 Act with respect to the cancellation decision, the appeal—

^(a) Section 13 was amended by the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (c. 33) and by S.I. 2010/22.

- (bb) was determined before 1st April 2019 by way of a remittal of the cancellation decision to the Regulator under section 13(3)(e) of the 2006 Act but a further decision by the Regulator in relation to the remittal has not been taken; or
 - (ii) where, before 1st April 2019, P did not submit such notice of appeal, the period within which an appeal may be made has not ended on that date.
- (4) On and after 1st April 2019 a relevant person has a temporary permission to carry on—
- (a) an activity of the kind specified by any of articles 89G to 89M of the 2001 Order (specified kinds of claims management activity); and
 - (b) so far as relevant to that activity, the activity specified by article 64 of the 2001 Order.
- (5) Subject to article 83(2), a temporary permission to carry on the activities referred to in paragraph (4) has effect—
- (a) in the case of P, as a Part 4A permission to carry on those activities which has been suspended by the FCA under section 206A of the 2000 Act; or
 - (b) in the case of any other relevant person, as a Part 4A permission to carry on those activities.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(a)—

 - (b) by a remittal of the refusal or cancellation decision under section 13(3)(e) of the 2006 Act which results in a reversal of that decision,
- P’s temporary permission is to be treated as if its suspension had, on the date of the determination, been withdrawn by the FCA under section 206A(6) of the 2000 Act.
- (9) Where, before 1st April 2019, the First-tier Tribunal suspended the effect of the refusal decision or the cancellation decision under section 13(3A)(c) of the 2006 Act, P’s temporary permission is to be treated as a Part 4A permission which is not subject to suspension by the FCA under section 206A of the 2000 Act.
- (10) Where, at any time on or after 1st April 2019—
- (a) the First-tier Tribunal suspends the effect of the refusal decision or the cancellation decision under section 13(3A)(c) of the 2006 Act; or
 - (b) the Tribunal suspends the effect of the refusal decision or the cancellation decision under rule 5(5) of the Tribunal Procedure (Upper Tribunal) Rules 2008(a),

(a) S.I. 2008/2698.

Procedure for notifying the FCA of a desire to be registered for temporary permission

81.—(1) The FCA may give a direction specifying—

- (a) the manner in which a desire to be registered for temporary permission under article 80 is required to be notified to the FCA;
- (b) the date on or after which notification of such a desire may be given; and
- (c) such information as the FCA may reasonably require to be contained in, or supplied with, that notification.

(2) A direction under this article may impose different requirements for different circumstances or different categories of notification.

(3) At any time after receiving notification under this article, the FCA may require the person giving the notification to provide the FCA with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to discharge its functions.

(4) The FCA may require information to be provided in such form, or verified in such manner, as the FCA may direct.

(5) A direction given under this article may be amended by further direction.

Duration of temporary permission

82.—(1) In this article a reference to a numbered section is a reference to the section so numbered in the 2000 Act.

(2) In this article—

“last application date” means the last date on which a person (“A”) who has a temporary permission to carry on an activity referred to in article 80(4) (temporary permission) may make a relevant application; and

“relevant application” means—

- (a) where, immediately before 1st April 2019, A is a 2000 Act authorised person, an application by A under section 55H (variation by FCA at request of authorised person) to vary A’s Part 4A permission by adding regulated claims management activity to the activities to which the permission relates;
- (b) where, immediately before 1st April 2019, A is not a 2000 Act authorised person, an application by A under section 55A (application for permission) for permission to carry on regulated claims management activity.

(3) The FCA must give a direction specifying the last application date.

(4) A’s temporary permission ceases to have effect—

- (a) where A makes a relevant application on or before the last application date, on the date on which that application is determined;
- (b) where A does not make a relevant application on or before the last application date, on the date on which the period of 30 days, beginning with the day after the last application date, expires;
- (c) on the date specified by the FCA in a notice of cancellation of A’s temporary permission, which may be given where—
 - (i) by virtue of article 80(5)(a), A’s temporary permission has effect as a Part 4A permission suspended by the FCA under section 206A of the 2000 Act; and
 - (ii) A’s relevant appeal (within the meaning of article 80(7)) is determined otherwise than in A’s favour.

(5) Paragraph (4) does not affect the exercise by the FCA, in relation to A’s temporary permission, of the powers conferred on it by the 2000 Act to vary, cancel or suspend a Part 4A permission.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (4)(a), the date on which a relevant application is determined is—

- (a) where A withdraws the application by written notice under section 55V(4), the date on which the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the notice is given expires;
- (b) where the FCA grants the application, the date stated in its written notice under section 55V(5) as the date from which the permission has effect;
- (c) where the FCA decides to—
 - (i) give or vary a Part 4A permission under section 55X(4)(a), (b), (c) or (d); or
 - (ii) refuse the application under section 55X(4)(f),

the date on which the period of 30 days, beginning with the date on which the FCA gives the decision notice under that section, expires.

(7) During the period of 30 days referred to in paragraphs (4)(b) and (6)(a) and (c), A may not enter, or offer to enter, into an agreement the making or performance of which would constitute regulated claims management activity.

(8) The prohibition in paragraph (7) has the same effect as a requirement imposed by the FCA under section 55L.

(9) A direction given under paragraph (3) may—

- (a) specify different dates for different classes of person or for different descriptions of activities;
- (b) specify a date before which a relevant application may not be made (“the opening date”), provided that the opening date is not less than two months before the last application date;
- (c) be amended by further direction.

(10) Subject to article 83(7) and (8), a relevant application made before the opening date is to be treated as if it had not been made.

(11) Paragraphs (12) and (13) apply where—

- (a) A’s temporary permission ceases to have effect by virtue of paragraph (4) or the exercise by the FCA of the powers conferred on it by the 2000 Act to cancel a Part 4A permission; and
- (b) A consequently ceases, on the date on which A’s temporary permission ceases (“the cessation date”), to be a 2000 Act authorised person.

(12) Paragraph 13 applies in relation to—

- (a) any act or omission by A which occurred before the cessation date; or
- (b) the contravention by A of any requirement imposed on A under section 55L (imposition of requirements by FCA) or 404F(7) (other definitions) which—
 - (i) is in effect immediately before the cessation date; and
 - (ii) which continues to have effect in accordance with paragraph (14).

(13) Part 11 (information gathering and investigations), Part 14 (disciplinary measures) and section 384 (power of the FCA to require restitution) of the 2000 Act are to be read as if a reference to an authorised person included a reference to A.

(14) The requirement referred to in paragraph 12(b) continues to have effect after the cessation date until such time as it is cancelled by the FCA, which the FCA must do when it is satisfied that it is no longer necessary for that requirement to continue to have effect.

Application of the 2000 Act to persons with a temporary permission

83.—(1) In this article a reference to a numbered section is a reference to the section so numbered in the 2000 Act.

(2) This article applies in relation to a person (“A”) who has a temporary permission to carry on an activity referred to in article 80(4) (“temporary permission”).

(3) A’s temporary permission does not have effect as a Part 4A permission for the purposes of—

- (a) section 38(2) (exemption orders);

(b) section 39(1C)(a) (exemption of appointed representatives);

(c) section 55A(3) (application for permission).

(4) For the purposes of section 327(7) and (9)(a) (exemption from the general prohibition), A is not to be treated as carrying on a regulated claims management activity where A carries on that activity pursuant to A's temporary permission.

(5) For the purposes of section 21(2) (restrictions on financial promotion), if A does not have permission other than a temporary permission, A may only approve the content of a communication if the communication invites or induces a person to enter into (or offer to enter into) an agreement in respect of a regulated activity for which A has temporary permission.

(6) For the purposes of section 39 (exemption of appointed representatives), A may be an appointed representative in relation to an activity which A does not have temporary permission to carry on.

(7) Where A applies to the FCA—

(a) under section 55A for permission to carry on a regulated activity which is not a regulated claims management activity; or

(b) under section 55H to vary A's Part 4A permission by adding to the activities to which the permission relates a regulated activity which is not a regulated claims management activity, the application may be treated by the FCA as relating also to some or all of the regulated activities for which A has temporary permission.

(8) If the FCA treats the application as relating to some or all of the regulated activities for which A has temporary permission, article 82(10) does not apply in relation to the application.

(9) The duty imposed by section 55B(3) (satisfaction of threshold conditions) does not apply where the FCA exercises its power in relation to A under—

(a) section 55J(b) (variation or cancellation on initiative of regulator);

(b) section 55H (variation by FCA at request of authorised person) to remove a regulated activity from those for which A has temporary permission;

(c) section 55L (imposition of requirements by FCA).

(10) Where, immediately before 1st April 2019, A is not a 2000 Act authorised person, A is not to be treated, by virtue of article 80(5), as a 2000 Act authorised person for the purposes of Part 12 of the 2000 Act (control over authorised persons).

(11) For the purposes of the compensation scheme established under section 213, a claim made against A in connection with any activity which A's temporary permission permits A to carry on is to be treated as if it were not made in connection with regulated activities carried on by A.

(12) The activity which A's temporary permission permits A to carry on is to be treated as if it were not a regulated activity for the purposes of—

(a) construing the reference to the only regulated activities that a person carries on, or seeks to carry on, which is contained in paragraphs 2C(1A), 2D(3A) and 2F(3) of Schedule 6 to the 2000 Act (threshold conditions: Part 4A permission: authorised persons who are not PRA-authorised persons); and

(b) article 6A(1)(b) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Controllers) (Exemption) Order 2009(c).

(a) Section 327(9) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8) is inserted by article 91(5) of this Order.

(b) Section 55J was inserted by the Financial Services Act 2012 (c. 21), section 11(2) and amended by S.I. 2013/1773 and 3115, 2015/575, 1882 and 910, 2016/225 and 680, and 2018/135.

PART 4

Rules and guidance

Claims management related rules and guidance made by the FCA

84.—(1) This article applies in respect of rules made or guidance given by the FCA which relate to regulated claims management activity or the carrying on of such activity.

(2) Section 1B(4) of the 2000 Act (competition duty) does not apply to the extent that—

- (a) the claims management related rules are the same as, or substantially the same as, or have the same, or substantially the same, effect as any of the provisions in Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006(a) provisions in force immediately before Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006 was repealed; or
- (b) the claims management related guidance is the same as, or substantially the same as, or has the same, or substantially the same, effect as any of the provisions in Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006 provisions in force immediately before Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006 was repealed.

(3) Any requirement imposed on the FCA—

- (a) to publish a draft of rules, guidance or any other instrument or document and invite representations about it; or
- (b) to consult particular persons, may be satisfied by things done by the FCA before the date on which this article comes into force.

(4) The Compensation Act 2006 provisions are to be treated as if they had effect in Scotland for the purposes of—

- (a) paragraph (2); and
- (b) paragraph 7 of Schedule 5 to the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018(b).

(5) For the purposes of this article, the “Compensation Act 2006 provisions” are—

- (b) any subordinate legislation or rules made or guidance or codes of practice issued under that Act in force immediately before Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006 was repealed; and
- (c) section 75 of the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

(6) For the purpose of rules that are made by the FCA in respect of the transfer of the regulation of claims management activity to the FCA, section 138I of the 2000 Act applies for the purpose of the FCA’s cost benefit analysis in respect of the regulation of claims management activity as if for subsections (7) and (8) there were substituted –

“(7) “Cost benefit analysis” means—

- (a) an analysis of the difference between the costs and benefits of the provisions set out in subsection (7A) and the costs and benefits that will arise in the application to England and Wales and Scotland –

 - (ii) if subsection (5) applies, from the rules that have been made, and
- (b) subject to subsection (8), an estimate of that difference.

(7A) For the purposes of subsection (7), the provisions applicable are—

- (a) the provisions of the Compensation Act 2006 in force immediately before Part 2 of that Act was repealed; and

(a) 2006 c. 29.

(b) 2018 c. 10.

- (b) any subordinate legislation or rules made, or guidance or codes of practice issued, under that Act.

(7B) For the purposes of subsection (7), the provisions of the Compensation Act 2006 are to be treated as if—

- (a) they had effect in Scotland; and
- (b) they included section 75 of the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

(8) If, in the opinion of the FCA—

- (a) the difference referred to in subsection (7) cannot reasonably be estimated; or
- (b) it is not reasonably practicable to produce an estimate, the cost benefit analysis need not estimate the difference but must include a statement of the FCA’s opinion and an explanation of it.”

(7) The requirements of section 138I of the 2000 Act (as modified above) in so far as they apply to a proposal to make rules to which this article applies may be satisfied by things done (wholly or in part) before the date on which this article comes into force.

(8) It is immaterial for the purposes of paragraph (7) if, when the things were done, they were not compatible with section 138I of the 2000 Act.

Designation by the FCA of the Regulator’s Rules

85.—(1) In this article, “the Regulator” has the meaning given in paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018(a) (“the 2018 Act”).

(2) To designate or modify relevant rules for the purposes of paragraphs 8 and 9 of Schedule 5 to the 2018 Act (designation of Regulator’s rules), the FCA must make an instrument in writing which specifies, or more than one instrument in writing which between them specify—

- (a) the relevant rules;
- (b) any modifications being made to the rules;
- (c) the provision under Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006 under which the relevant rules were made;
- (d) the comparable provision in the 2000 Act by virtue of which the designated rule is to be treated as having been made; and
- (e) the date on which the designation is to come into effect.

(3) An instrument which satisfies the requirements of paragraph (2) is a designating instrument.

(4) The FCA must publish each designating instrument in the way appearing to the designating body to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(5) A person is not to be taken to have contravened a designating instrument if the person shows that, at the time of the alleged contravention, the designating instrument concerned had not been published.

(6) A designating instrument is to be treated as a rule-making instrument for the purposes of section 138H (verification of rules) of the 2000 Act.

(7) A designating instrument may contain provision other than that required by paragraph (2).

(8) The making of a designating instrument is a legislative function for the purposes of paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 1ZA to the 2000 Act (arrangements for discharging functions).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order implements the transfer of regulation of claims management activity in Great Britain from the Claims Management Regulation Unit (the “CMRU”), a part of the Ministry of Justice, to the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”).

The Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018 (c. 10) (“the 2018 Act”) amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8) (“the 2000 Act”) to make claims management activity a regulated activity under the 2000 Act. Claims management services include services in relation to claims for compensation, restitution, repayment or any other remedy or relief in respect of loss or damage, or in respect of an obligation.

Under powers inserted into the 2000 Act by section 27 of the 2018 Act, the Treasury may by order prescribe when a person is or is not to be treated as carrying on a claims management activity in Great Britain, and the types of claim in respect of which claims management activity is to be regulated.

This Order sets out those claims management activities which are subject to regulation and the classes of persons who are exempt from authorisation by the FCA. The amendments made by the 2018 Act to the 2000 Act make provision for regulation of claims management activity in Scotland for the first time.

Part 1 of the Order sets out preliminary matters. It makes provision for the Order to come into force ahead of the transfer date of 1st April 2019 to enable the FCA and Financial Ombudsman Service to make rules. Additionally, it sets out when a person is to be treated as carrying on a regulated claims management activity in Great Britain.

Part 2 of the Order carries out key elements of the transfer of the existing claims management regulatory regime from the CMRU to the FCA. It amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001 (S.I. 2001/544) (“the Regulated Activities Order”) to specify the claims management activities which are to be treated as “regulated activities” which require authorisation by the FCA.

Those activities include advertising for claimants or potential claimants, advice and representation in respect of claims, and the investigation of claims. The types of claim include: personal injury claims and criminal injury compensation claims, claims relating to financial services or financial products (which include claims made pursuant to section 75 of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 (c. 39)), claims for housing disrepair, employment-related claims and claims for industrial injury disability benefits.

Members of certain professions (notably solicitors, barristers, advocates and legal executives) and certain other classes of person are exempted from regulation under the Regulated Activities Order by the FCA when undertaking claims management activity in the ordinary course of legal practice pursuant to the professional rules to which they are subject as legal practitioners. Certain persons or bodies providing regulated claims management services on a not-for-profit basis will also be exempted.

Part 2 of the Order also amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotions) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/1529) by specifying claims management activities which are controlled activities for the purposes of section 21 of the 2000 Act. Section 21(1) of that Act prohibits a person from communicating an invitation or inducement to engage in claims management activity unless the content of the communication is approved by an authorised person or unless an exemption applies.

Part 3 of the Order contains transitional provisions.

Part 4 of the Order contains provisions relating to rules and guidance made by the FCA.

Part 5 of the Order contains miscellaneous provisions.

Part 6 of the Order makes consequential amendments to primary and secondary legislation. It provides for the repeal of Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006 which contains provisions relating to the regulation of claims management services under that Act. It also revokes a number of statutory instruments in consequence of the repeal of that Act and contains a number of saving provisions which are necessary to give effect to certain transitional provisions contained in Part 3 of the Order.

Part 7 of the Order requires the Treasury to review the regulatory provision contained in the Order within 5 years of the Order coming into force.

A full impact assessment of the effect that this Order will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector is available from Her Majesty's Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW10 2HQ on www.hm-treasury.gov.uk and is published alongside the Order on www.legislation.gov.uk.
