

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Ms. K. Mighall

Respondent: Daleside Nursing Home Ltd

HELD AT: Liverpool

ON: 21 September 2018

BEFORE: Employment Judge T Vincent Ryan

REPRESENTATION:

Claimant: Absent – unexcused and absence unexplained

Respondent: Mr. P. Cunningham, consultant

JUDGMENT

The judgment of the Tribunal is that the claimant's claim that the respondent made unauthorised deductions from her wages is dismissed because of the claimant's failure to pursue it actively.

DIRECTION

By no later than seven days after the date on which this judgment is sent to the parties (shown below) the claimant shall write to the tribunal to show cause why the tribunal ought not make an Order for costs against her and in favour of the respondent in the sum of £500 because she has acted unreasonably in either bringing these proceedings or the way that she has conducted them. In the absence of a satisfactory response within the time specified an Employment Judge may make such a Costs Order without further notice or hearing. The claimant may request a formal Costs Hearing or that matters are dealt with by way of written representations without her having to attend at the tribunal.
