Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 5 June in which you requested the following information:

"Please can you provide the total costs for all dfrp team travel and subsistence claims over the last 5 years to April 18."

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some of the information in scope of your request is held.

The total travel and subsistence claimed by the Defence Fire and Rescue Project (including the Value for Money Benchmark team) for the period March 2014 to March 2018 was £22,180.00. We do not have data prior to March 2014 as costs were not broken down to the level of detail required.

If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance. Following this, if you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail { HYPERLINK "mailto:CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk" }). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website at { HYPERLINK "https://ico.org.uk" }.

Yours sincerely,

Disclosure and Litigation Leader
