

As a life long and as man in his years still running his pub with minimum 100 hours a week. Your government has sold us fewer and fewer tiered pub down the river to the big brewery's and pub co with cluse 8.12 and the pub so are laughing all the way to the bank. The next time you want to take a head of state to your local pub it wont be their or if it is it will be a corporate pub with no corrector and micro waved food not cock with love and a barperson how has no love for his beer served correctly is this what you want only big business how pay in to your party coppers. From a very disappointed voter and landlord how now knows the pub co will not put up the rent but they will find lots f ways for us landlord to toe the line and work for them or if we don't they will make life so hard that we will be made to retire and then you will have to pay my bills await a little more than just a note saying thank you for your comments
