Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 (“the Act”)

Decisions made in respect of the operator’s licence held by James Executive Travel Ltd, PG2006824

1. Adverse findings are made under sections 17(1)(b); 17(3)(aa); 17(3)(c); and 17 (3)(a) of the Act.
2. The operator continues to satisfy the requirement to be of good repute.
3. The operator continues to satisfy the requirement to be of sufficient financial standing
4. The operator continues to satisfy the requirement to be professionally competent.
5. The following undertakings are recorded on the operator’s licence:
  - 1) PMIs will be no more than 4 weekly; and,
  - 2) Rolling road brake tests will be conducted at least every alternate PMI.
6. Authority is reduced from 10 discs to 8 discs for the period 23:59 hours on 9 November 2018 until 00:01 hours on 12 November 2018.

Decisions made in respect of Transport Manager Karl Robert Giles

7. Repute is retained albeit tarnished. I have taken into consideration the fact that Karl Robert Giles has now attended a specialist two day transport manager refresher course.

Decisions made in respect of the operator's licence held by Robert Alan Giles
