

Dear members of the review group,

In view of the fact that the most compulsive gamblers are those on very low incomes and the disadvantaged, it seems extraordinary to me that anything more than £2 should even be considered. The impact that a £100 bet would have on individuals and families alike is unthinkable. You have it in your hands to afford these people some degree of protections, and I would ask you to use this opportunity to safeguard this very vulnerable group of society.

Thank you,
