

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mrs J Ingham

Respondent: Nestor Primecare Services Limited (t/a Allied Healthcare)

Heard at: Liverpool                      On: 11 December 2017

Before: Employment Judge Wardle

Representation

Claimant: In person

Respondents: Mr R Crabtree - Consultant

JUDGMENT

This claim stands adjourned in order to allow for its service on a second respondent in the name of Just One Recruitment and Training Limited in circumstances where it is contended by the respondent that the claimant's employment transferred to this body by way of a relevant transfer on 8 May 2017 and that pursuant to Regulation 4(2)(a) of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 the liability argued for by the claimant in respect of an alleged failure to pay her the National Minimum Wage in respect of hours spent by her in sleeping over at a service user's house prior to the transfer has transferred to it.

---

Employment Judge Wardle

18 December 2017

SENT TO THE PARTIES ON

19 April 2018

FOR EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS