

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant
Ms R. Eaton

Respondent
Hertford Regional College

v

Heard at: Watford

On: 17 January 2019

Before: Employment Judge Heal

Appearances

For the Claimant: not present or represented
For the Respondent: Ms Latunji-Cockbill, solicitor.

Preamble

1. This preliminary hearing was originally listed to be heard today at 10.00am at Bury St Edmunds. By e-mail dated 15 November 2018, sent to the claimant's email address as supplied on her claim form, the respondent applied for a transfer of the hearing to Watford. No response was received from the claimant to that application and the hearing was accordingly transferred to Watford. Notice of the hearing in Watford was sent to the claimant dated 16 December 2018.
2. On 16 January 2019 a tribunal clerk sent the claimant an email asking her to confirm her attendance at the hearing. No response was received.
3. At 10.00am the claimant had not appeared at the tribunal. The tribunal clerk telephoned the claimant on the number provided on the claim form but received no response.
4. Checks showed that no message had been received from the claimant. At the respondent's suggestion, the clerk telephoned Bury St Edmunds Employment Tribunal, but the claimant had not attended there this morning.
5. Those checks took until 10.40am at which time the claimant had still not attended at the tribunal.
6. Accordingly I made the judgment set out below.

JUDGMENT

1. The claim is dismissed on the non-attendance of the claimant, pursuant to rule 47.
2. Costs reserved.
