Respondent: Global Currency

Heard at: Manchester On: 28 January 2019

Before: Employment Judge Whittaker

REPRESENTATION:

Claimant: In person

Respondent: Mr Oyebanji - Director

JUDGMENT

The judgment of the Tribunal is that:

1. The respondent shall pay to the claimant the sum of £688.33 which had been unlawfully deducted from the wages of the claimant. The respondent shall make the appropriate deductions for income tax before making payment to the claimant.
2. Pursuant to sections 11 and 12 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 the Tribunal determines that the particulars which ought to have been included in the payslip issued to the claimant for May 2018 are that the claimant worked 52 hours and that he should have been paid at the rate of £7.83 for each of those hours, and the pay due to the claimant, before deduction of income tax, should have been recorded and included in a payslip as being £407.16.
3. Pursuant to section 11 and section 12 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 the Tribunal determines that the particulars which should have been included in the payslip issued to the claimant for the month of June 2018 should have been that the claimant worked 59 hours at £7.83 per hour and that before deduction of income tax the wages due to the claimant from the respondent were £461.97.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990

Tribunal case number(s): 2415013/2018

Name of Mr Y Abdulrahman v Global Currency case(s):

The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990 provides that sums of money payable as a result of a judgment of an Employment Tribunal (excluding sums representing costs or expenses), shall carry interest where the full amount is not paid within 14 days after the day that the document containing the tribunal's written judgment is recorded as having been sent to parties. That day is known as "the relevant decision day". The date from which interest starts to accrue is called "the calculation day" and is the day immediately following the relevant decision day.

The rate of interest payable is that specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as "the stipulated rate of interest" and the rate applicable in your case is set out below.

The following information in respect of this case is provided by the Secretary of the Tribunals in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 of the Order:-

"the relevant decision day" is: 4 February 2019

"the calculation day" is: 5 February 2019

"the stipulated rate of interest" is: 8%

INTEREST ON TRIBUNAL AWARDS

GUIDANCE NOTE

1. This guidance note should be read in conjunction with the booklet, 'The Judgment' which can be found on our website at www.gov.uk/government/publications/employment-tribunal-hearings-judgment-guide-t426

If you do not have access to the internet, paper copies can be obtained by telephoning the tribunal office dealing with the claim.

2. The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990 provides for interest to be paid on employment tribunal awards (excluding sums representing costs or expenses) if they remain wholly or partly unpaid more than 14 days after the date on which the Tribunal's judgment is recorded as having been sent to the parties, which is known as "the relevant decision day".
3. The date from which interest starts to accrue is the day immediately following the relevant decision day and is called "the calculation day". The dates of both the relevant decision day and the calculation day that apply in your case are recorded on the Notice attached to the judgment. If you have received a judgment and subsequently request reasons (see 'The Judgment' booklet) the date of the relevant judgment day will remain unchanged.
4. "Interest" means simple interest accruing from day to day on such part of the sum of money awarded by the tribunal for the time being remaining unpaid. Interest does not accrue on deductions such as Tax and/or National Insurance Contributions that are to be paid to the appropriate authorities. Neither does interest accrue on any sums which the Secretary of State has claimed in a recoupment notice (see 'The Judgment' booklet).
5. Where the sum awarded is varied upon a review of the judgment by the Employment Tribunal or upon appeal to the Employment Appeal Tribunal or a higher appellate court, then interest will accrue in the same way (from "the calculation day"), but on the award as varied by the higher court and not on the sum originally awarded by the Tribunal.
6. 'The Judgment' booklet explains how employment tribunal awards are enforced. The interest element of an award is enforced in the same way.
