

Defence Digital and Information Technology (D&IT) Function

Vision

A Function that leads delivery of transformative Digital and Information capability, that is secure, integrated, and easy-to-use, delivered at scale and pace to enable sustainable military and business advantage

Cohesion ✓

Integration ✓

Speed and Adaptability ✓

Implementation

Realising D&IT Goals

- Digitise the battlespace
- Deliver responsive cyber defence
- Promote information-led wider business transformation
- Provide more effective and efficient IT services
- Build a capable and cohesive Function

Function Accountabilities

- Exploiting digital technologies
- Cyber defence and information risk
- IT reliability and quality
- Functional efficiency and effectiveness
- Skills and capabilities

Scope

All Defence people who use D&IT to do their work

People from other functions who enable the design, delivery and operation of D&IT

People in the D&IT Function: Knowledge and Information Management (KIM), Digital, Data and Technology (DDAT) and Cyber Security professionals across Defence

Governance

- EXCO
- Defence Information Steering Committee
- D&IT Coherence Group
- Defence Technology and Innovation Board
- Function Leadership Steering Group
- Annual review of Function by DARA
- Cyber Risk Oversight Board
- Senior Information Risk Owner Board

Authorities

- Strategic alignment of D&IT
- Information and cyber risk
- Technical architecture
- ICT operating process
- Functional skills and capabilities
- Policies, Standards and Technical Architecture

Benefits

- ✓ Improved decision support and more effective Command and Control
- ✓ Reduced risk of loss of sensitive data
- ✓ Simpler, more effective and cheaper processes
- ✓ Information and analysis driving greater insight and decision-making
- ✓ IT efficiency through fewer cost and schedule overruns
- ✓ Staff satisfaction, retention and quality
- ✓ Service reliability and quality with a reduction in system outages
- ✓ A D&IT Function investment portfolio aligned with Defence Priorities

Delivering for Defence and Government

For more information email: ISS-CorporateComms@mod.gov.uk