Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 25.03.2019 requesting the following information:

“Could you please make available the Traffic Separation Scheme polygons in shapefile format”

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search across the UKHO has now been completed, and I can confirm that the department holds information relevant to your request.

However, section 21(1) of the FOI Act states that information is exempt if it is reasonably accessible to the applicant by other means. This information is available on our website and can be accessed and downloaded at: data.admiralty.co.uk. This data will be refreshed on the 28th March 2019 so you may wish to wait until this date before you download required files.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

UKHO Secretariat
