REPRESENTATION:

Claimant: In person

Respondent: Mr T Draper, Solicitor

JUDGMENT

The judgment of the Tribunal is that:

1. The respondent has now conceded that the claimant is disabled within the meaning of section 6 of the Equality Act 2010 and therefore the only issue to be dealt with at this hearing is how far back the claimant can make his claims for disability discrimination.
2. In all the circumstances of this case I confirm that the claimant can only make claims relating to those issues from April 2017 through to February 2018.
3. Directions have already been made in this matter.
4. No further order or direction need be made.
