Information Released

The information you require can be found via the Companies House (CH) website. Our Free Company Data Product will provide the following information: the company number, address, status, incorporation date, account and annual return filing dates, SIC code, URI and basic information about mortgage charges. The following is a link to access the Free Company Data Product on our website:

By searching the free data product for the relevant SIC codes you will be able to determine the number of companies with each specific code. The product relates to companies currently live on the register and companies that have been dissolved will not be shown. Therefore, they are live companies, but each company would have to be viewed individually on the public register to determine its current status i.e. whether the company is trading or dormant.

Information available via our public register and our free data product is exempt from disclosure under section 21 FOIA as it is reasonably accessible to you.
