Companies House does not hold information that falls within the scope of your request.

Companies House provides a free company data product which provides a snapshot of basic company data of live companies on the register.

To be of assistance, I have included a link to this product:

http://download.companieshouse.gov.uk/en_output.html

From this data you can filter the sic codes in column 'AA' and select those companies that match, as closely as possible, the classification you require.

To further assist you, I have also inserted a link to the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) codes:
