The Armed Forces Covenant

An Enduring Covenant Between

The People of the United Kingdom

Her Majesty's Government

— and —

All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

And their Families

The first duty of Government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfil that responsibility on behalf of the Government, sacrificing some civilian freedoms, facing danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty. Families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed Forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval Service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve our respect and support, and fair treatment.

Those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is appropriate in some cases, especially for those who have given most such as the injured and the bereaved.

This obligation involves the whole of society: it includes voluntary and charitable bodies, private organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed Forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty unites the country and demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in upholding this Covenant.

Section 1: Principles Of The Armed Forces Covenant

1.1 We Chilli Tuk Tuk Ltd. will endeavour in our business dealings to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, which are:

- no member of the Armed Forces Community should face disadvantage in the provision of public and commercial services compared to any other citizen
- in some circumstances special treatment may be appropriate especially for the injured or bereaved.

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

2.1 Chilli Tuk Tuk Ltd recognises the value serving personnel, reservists, veterans and military families bring to our business. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant, by:

- promoting the fact that we are an armed forces-friendly organisation; we shall display the Armed Forces Covenant logo on our website, promote on our social media and include the logo on print material (e.g our menus)
- seeking to support the employment of veterans young and old and working with the Career Transition Partnership (CTP), in order to establish a tailored employment pathway for Service Leavers; we shall contact the CTP team as and when employment opportunities arise
- striving to support the employment of Service spouses and partners; we will shall use our best endeavours to work with relevant agencies to open up opportunities to service spouses and partners
- aiming to actively participate in Armed Forces Day; by actively promoting on our social media channels and posting a link to the Armed Forces Day website
- Collaborating with the ABF Soldiers Charity, as a restaurant partner supporting the Big Curry campaign where we will be selling a 'Big Curry' to our customers and an agreed proceed will be given to the ABF Soldiers Charity – this is a collaboration we will be heavily promoting.

2.2 We will publicise these commitments through our literature and/or on our website, setting out how we will seek to honour them.
