Dear [REDACTED],

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000: MINISTRY OF DEFENCE POLICE: DONATIONS,GIFTS,SPONSORSHIPS AND LOANS

We refer to your email dated 1 February 2019 to the Ministry of Defence Police which was acknowledged on the 4 February 2019.

We are treating your email as a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA 2000).

In your email you requested the following information:

“For the year 2018 and available data for 2019, I would like to be provided with details on donations, gifts, sponsorships and loans that have been received by the police force.

For each donation, gift, sponsorship and loan, please provide the following information:

The year that the donation, gift, sponsorship and loan was received

The sum or value (if known) and description of the donation, gift, sponsorship and loan

If known, what the donation, gift, sponsorship and loan was subsequently used for e.g. a donation passed to teams working with the local community, or a gift subsequently used in a charity raffle

For each donation, gift, sponsorship and loan, please provide further information regarding where the donation, gift, sponsorship and loan came from:

If it was an individual, please provide the full name and title of the individual who awarded the donation, gift, sponsorship or loan

If it was a government department or another public authority such as a council that awarded the donation, gift, sponsorship or loan, please provide the name of that government department or public authority

If it was a company or organisation or group that awarded the donation, gift, sponsorship or loan, please provide the name of that company or organisation or group

If it was a foundation or charity that awarded the donation, gift, sponsorship or loan, please provide the name of that foundation or charity.”

A search has been conducted and I can confirm that information within the scope of your request is held by the Ministry of Defence.
